Want to get involved?

Volunteers are always needed to offer hospitality, read lessons, lead intercessions, preach at Evensong, and serve at the altar. If you would like to contribute to the life of the Chapel in this way, please see any of the Chapel Officers or the Chaplain. The Chapel Choir makes a valuable contribution to the musical life of the whole college and welcomes singers of all faiths and none.

Please see Director of Music, Mr Simon Whalley.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Dedication of New Pipe Organ & Service of Welcome for Students, Sunday 9 October (1st Week), 5.30pm

The first Sunday service of term will see the dedication of our new and magnificent Tickell pipe organ, as well as the first opportunity to welcome students to Sunday services in the Chapel. All are welcome to join us for this festive occasion. A party will follow at 8.30pm.

Choral Requiem Mass for All Souls' Day, Wednesday 2 November (4th Week), 6.00pm

This celebration of the Eucharist with Keble College Chapel Choir is a solemn and reflective service in which we remember those who have died. Please email the Chaplain with the names of loved ones you would like to have remembered in the service.

Remembrance Day Requiem Concert, Friday 11 November (5th Week), 11.00am and 6.00pm

11:00am: We will keep a two-minute silence in the College with the tolling of the Chapel bells followed by a short time of music and prayer by the Choir.

6:00pm: Keble College Chapel Choir offer a Choral Requiem to which all are welcome.

Advent Lessons and Carols, Sunday 27 November (8th Week), 5.30pm

A popular service of readings, anthems, and hymns for the season of Advent as we prepare for the season of Christmas. Led by Keble College Chapel Choir, this beautiful service takes place by the light of over 1500 candles and is followed by Christmas Dinner in Hall.

Service of Compline, Thursdays, 9.00pm

An ancient service of prayer sung by Keble College Choral Scholars in a candle-lit Chapel.

SUNDAYS

5.30pm

Sung Eucharist (except where stated otherwise)

Each Sunday the College community gathers to celebrate the presence of Christ in Word and Sacrament. We hear readings from Scripture and a sermon and receive communion. Keble College Chapel Choir sings the setting of the service and an anthem; the congregation joins in hymns and the psalm. All are welcome, whatever your background or experience of church. Refreshments are available after the service.
