Want to get involved?

Volunteers are always needed to offer hospitality, read lessons, lead intercessions, and acolyte. If you would like to contribute to the life of the Chapel in this way, please see any of the Chapel Officers or the Chaplain. The Chapel Choir makes a valuable contribution to the musical life of the whole college and welcomes singers of all faiths and none. Please see Director of Music, Mr Simon Whalley.

Offerings for Finalists

This term the Chapel has a few offerings specifically for Keble Finalists.

The Chapel will remain open to Finalists as a space for prayer and meditation throughout the term.

Carnations of all colours will be available for Finalists in the Chapel from 3rd Week – all are welcome to take a carnation before their exams.

A Prayer Request Board will also be available by the Chapel doors where prayers can be requested for a specific exam or difficulty. We will offer these prayers (anonymous or named) during the daily services in Chapel throughout the term.

Chaplain's Teas will take place on Tuesdays from 5-6pm. Finalists in particular are welcome to stop by for a break, a chat, and some caffeine and sweets.

Keble College The Chapel

Trinity Term 2011

The Chapel is open each day as a place for prayer. Services in Chapel are open to all College members and staff, their guests and friends. Our services are according to those of the Church of England, but all are welcome to participate in our worship, regardless of tradition or denomination.

WEEKDAYS

Unless indicated on the notice board, all daily services during term are as below.
All evening services finish in time for dinner in Hall.

Daily Offices

Morning Prayer at 8.15am followed by breakfast
Evening Prayer at 6.30pm (Monday and Friday)
Compline at 9.00pm (Thursday)

Holy Eucharist

Holy Eucharist at 6.30pm (Tuesday and Thursday)
Holy Eucharist is also celebrated on all major Holy Days as indicated each week on the Chapel notice board.

Choral Evensong (with Keble College Chapel Choir)

Wednesdays at 6.00pm
Student preachers will once again offer homilies at the following Evensongs this term:
4 May (1st Week); 18 May (3rd Week); 25 May (4th Week); 8 June (6th Week)

SPECIAL SERVICES

St Mark's Day, Sunday 1st Week, 5.30pm

This Evensong commemorates the foundation of the College and her benefactors and is the 135th anniversary of the opening of the Chapel. A festive dinner in Hall follows the service.

Evensong in Bouthrop, Wednesday 2nd Week, 6.30pm

The choir will travel to St Martin, Bouthrop to offer a service of Evensong. This is the parish church where John Keble served as a curate shortly after his ordination in 1815 and they graciously offer their hospitality to Keble College Chapel Choir every year.

Ascension Day, Thursday 5th Week, 8.15am and 6.00pm

This important day of the Christian year commemorates the risen Christ's ascension into heaven and begins our preparations to celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The choir will sing Morning Prayer from the roof of the Chapel at 8.15am. A sung Eucharist will also be offered in the Chapel at 6.00pm that evening.

Open Air Evensong, Wednesday 7th Week, 6.00pm

Keble College Chapel Choir will sing Evensong in Liddon Quad. All are welcome!

Leavers' Service, Sunday 8th Week, 5.30pm

This is the final Sunday service in the Chapel for the academic year. Following dinner, the Chapel will host a party to offer our thanks and blessings to all Leavers this year.

SUNDAYS

5.30pm

Sung Eucharist (except where stated otherwise)

Each Sunday the College community gathers to celebrate the presence of Christ in Word and Sacrament. We hear readings from Scripture and a sermon and receive communion. Keble College Chapel Choir sings the setting of the service and an anthem; the congregation joins in hymns and the psalm. All are welcome, whatever your background or experience of church. Refreshments are available after the service.
