

BLACKWELL'S BOOKSHOP

Dear Oxford Student,

Many congratulations on gaining your place at the university.

Blackwell's Bookshop at 50 Broad Street is Oxford's academic bookshop, sometimes referred to as 'Oxford's 39th College', where you can find all the books you need for your time studying here.

We look forward to seeing you at Blackwell's when you have started your studies. If you haven't visited us before, we're a must-visit location once you arrive. Our bookshop has four floors including the awe-inspiring Norrington Room, the main academic floor, which boasts three and half miles of shelving.

We're competitive on price too – our Student Price Match Guarantee means that we will not be beaten on price by any other UK bookseller.

And we're more than a bookshop – we have a fabulous author events programme, and we also sell music, DVDs, stationery, gifts and board games. We imagine that for many of you, Blackwell's will be a pretty regular haunt!

In the meantime if there are any books you need to read before you start here in October, please let us know what you would like to order and we will send them to you (postage is free) or have them delivered to your college so they'll be waiting for you on your first day.

Please contact us directly here at the bookshop if you want to order books or would simply like some advice. Alternatively, you can browse and buy with us online at Blackwells.co.uk
