Appendix C: Economics and Management Admissions 2022-23: Summary Data for Candidates

Total applicants, excluding candidates who withdrew: 1537. Of these applicants, 270 (17.57% of total applicant numbers) were shortlisted for interview and 90 places (5.86%) were offered. Breakdowns of the figures for applications and offers into various categories are provided below.

Category	Number of Applicants	(% of total applicants)
Female	565	36.76%
Male	972	63.24%
Application for 2023 entry	1502	97.72%
Application for 2024 entry	35	2.28%
UK (home)	805	52.37%
EU	161	10.48%
Overseas	571	37.15%
Offers for 2023	87	5.66%
Offers for 20224	3	0.20%

Candidates were shortlisted for interview according to the factors in the following table with weights – High/Medium/Low – as indicated. For those shortlisted, performance at interview is an additional assessment factor considered alongside those shown which remain important.

Factor	High	Med	Low
Pre-interview Admissions Test	X
GCSE (or similar) profile	X
Predicted performance at A-level (or similar)	X
UCAS reference		X
AS level module grades (if taken)			X
UCAS personal statement			X

For guidance, information is also presented on the distribution of scores on the TSA exam amongst EM applicants (more detail and individual results are available via Scoring and results | TSA Oxford | Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing):[1]

20th percentile	70.44
40th percentile	66.33
60th percentile	62.53
80th percentile	58.83

TSA averages:

All applicants	61.36
Shortlisted applicants	70.79
Applicants offered a place	73.25

---

[1] Percentiles are from the highest to lowest, i.e., 20th percentile refers to the base score of the top 20% of the cohort.