Fees and Funding
Details of your course fees are included with the Financial Declaration, sent to undergraduate offer-holders in March of their year of entry, and to graduates at the time of their offer. Undergraduates will also receive the annual Fees and Funding Guide from the University.

All students should expect their course fees to increase annually. Graduates should also be aware of the standard periods of fee liability and the Graduate Continuation Charge (see also below).

The University’s web pages on fees and funding contain complete details of the University Tuition Fee, payable by all students, undergraduate and graduate. Undergraduates who receive funding from Student Finance for the Tuition Fee will need to apply in Hilary Term to the Student Loans Company each year.

Course Fee
Full information on course fees can be found on the University’s web pages on fees and funding.

Once graduate students have reached the end of their standard period of fee liability Keble levies a Graduate Continuation Charge set at one quarter of the rate of the University charge. For 2020-21 this is £116 per term. This is payable until submission of thesis.

From the academic year 2019/2020, course fees for all matriculated students are published as a single figure.

Note
Course fees for the following course and students are non-standard; you should consult the University’s web pages on fees and funding:

- Overseas undergraduate medicine
- Undergraduate Overseas or Islands students on a year abroad
- MBA
- EMBA

All students are personally responsible for making arrangements for fees to be paid. Fees are payable yearly in advance.

Any fees payable by grant or loan will be paid directly to the University. The College will only collect the University fees from those that have personal responsibility to pay them. All University fees collected by the College are paid to the University.

Undergraduate Overseas Fees: Course fees will be invoiced early September, and are payable by 30th September 2020. In cases where fees will be paid (in whole or in part) by other funding bodies, the fees will be invoiced separately. It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that the College is provided with evidence of funding. The College cannot enter into negotiations with funding bodies.

The University Fees and Funding webpages include useful information on:

- Funding and scholarships
- Undergraduate funding, including for medical students
- Opportunities and funding for studying abroad
- Other graduate funding sources
- US and Canadian loans
- Funding for students with disabilities

Year Abroad

Home/EU and Islands students will be required to pay a year abroad course fee of 15% of the full course fee that applies in that year. Overseas students will be charged a reduced rate of course fee for their year abroad. Go to the Year Abroad Fees page of the University website for further information on fee rates.

Suspension

During periods of suspension of status you will not be liable for any Course fees, University or College. Other charges, such as rent, may apply. For full information on financial arrangements during periods of suspension please consult the College’s Guide for Undergraduates on Suspension of Status.
Rents and Charges

Accommodation

Accommodation in College rooms is offered to:

- All First-year, Second-year and Third-year undergraduates (except for those with a third-year abroad)
- Fourth-year undergraduates who have spent a year abroad as part of their course
- All first-year Graduates

Students may opt to live outside College in their second, third or fourth years if they wish.

There is some College accommodation for graduates in their second, third, and possibly further years; this is subject to availability in the H B Allen Centre. Our expectation is that we will be able to offer rooms to all second-year graduates who want them but if demand is greater than availability there will be a ballot organised by the Middle (Graduate) Common Room. For accommodation purposes you are termed a ‘returning graduate’ if you are in your 2nd or subsequent years of your course.

Rooms for first-year undergraduates are allocated by the Accommodation Manager, though incoming students may express a preference for type of room. Second-year and third-year students choose their room by a ballot system operated by the JCR. Full information on how rooms are allocated and how students can request reasonable adjustment on medical or other grounds can be found in the College Handbook.

Undergraduate accommodation is located in the Parks Road (main) site. The rooms in Liddon, Pusey and Sloane Robinson are organized along corridors, whilst those in Hayward and DeBreyne are on staircases. The 93 ARCO rooms which are reserved for third year students, consist of nine shared-ensuite apartments and flats of 10-12 ensuite rooms; each flat has a large equipped kitchen/common room.

For graduates only, a deposit of £50 is required to confirm acceptance of accommodation and this is credited towards the first term’s rent.
Rents: Parks Road (main) site for Undergraduates

Because it is important for students to have as clear an idea as possible of the likely costs of their course, Keble fixes undergraduate room rents for three years and publishes them in advance of offers of places being made. Whilst the standard of the rooms is uniformly high (as is recognised in the annual survey of student satisfaction levels, where Keble is routinely placed in the top five) not all rooms are the same. They differ in bathroom facilities (ensuite vs shared), size (large vs standard) and aspect (quad facing vs street facing). The mix of rooms for each year is as follows:

Accommodation available for undergraduates

In each year, the rent for a shared room is 5% lower than that for an ensuite room; the rent for a regular room is 5% lower than that for a large room; and the rent for a street-facing room is 5% lower than that for a quad-facing room. Thus, at the extremes, the rent for a shared, regular, street-facing room will be 15% lower than that for an ensuite, large, quad-facing room.

Information on rents for undergraduates starting in 2021-22 will be published in preceding spring. First and second year tenancies are for three terms of 9 weeks’ duration. Third year students may choose between a three-term and a nine-month contract.

All undergraduates resident in the main site are required to vacate their rooms on the last day of term by 6 p.m. according to their accommodation licence agreement. If you stay in College without permission you will be charged a minimum of £40.00 per night.

Rents: H B Allen Centre (for Graduates)

All the accommodation within the Centre is ensuite (with the exception of two sets of rooms which each can either be let as a 2-room apartment or as two single rooms with shared facilities). 67 rooms are self-contained studio apartments with their own kitchenettes: the rest of the accommodation is organised in flats of between 5 and 8 study-bedrooms, each flat having its own kitchen/dining room. All rooms have a double-bed, workspace, sitting area and storage facilities. The mix of rooms, and the rents being charged in 2020-2021, are as follows:

The rents for 2021-22 should be announced by end of March 2021.

All rooms are wheelchair accessible and 13 are configured for use by residents with a disability. The shared ensuite rooms and 16 of the studio rooms can be linked to form 2-room apartments for partnered accommodation, but the Centre is not able to provide accommodation for children.

Rooms are available to full-time students on either a 9-month or a 12-month tenancy, and those opting for a 9-month tenancy may extend their contract for up to a further three months in order to fit in with the requirements of their course, provided sufficient notice is given. We aim to offer all incoming graduates accommodation, although this is subject to the number of graduates arriving and seeking college accommodation. Thereafter preference is given to second-year, then third-year graduates.

Caution

First year graduates and undergraduates are charged a deposit of £150 caution money. This will be credited to the final term’s battels, but may be retained in part or in whole by the College to cover part or all of any charges made to rectify any damage or losses caused by the member concerned (normal wear excluded).

Key deposit

Room keys are issued to all Junior Members living in the main College (Parks Road) site, and there is a deposit of £35 per key and a charge of £35 for replacement keys. These charges do not apply to residents in the H B Allen Centre.

Guest rooms

Junior Members may book guest rooms in College subject to the following:

- Up to two of the SCR guest rooms in L6 may be booked by junior members on any given day
- Bookings may not be made more than 3 weeks in advance for home students and six weeks for overseas students
  - The maximum stay at any one time is 3 nights
  - The cost of the stay will be battled when the room is booked
- International (non UK resident) junior members may book the twin or double room for up to 3 nights per year out of term for family members and/or spouses. Term refers to weeks 0-8 inclusive

Charges for guest rooms for 2019-20: Single £57.50 Double/twin £79.50

Hall charge

There is no ‘Hall charge’. All meals in College are pay-as-you-go, i.e. you pay for what you choose. Meals in college are charged to your battels. See ‘Meal costs’ under Living Costs below.

MCR and JCR charges

There is a subscription fee for membership of the Middle (Graduate) Common Room which is published on the MCR website two weeks before the start of the academic year.

Gym charges

All current members of Keble, which includes JCR, MCR, SCR and staff, are eligible to join the College gym. But it is highly unlikely that the gyms will be open at the start of 2020-21 and thereafter availability will be decided in line with the recommendations of Public Health England. You must be a Keble member to use the Gym. There is a Membership fee of £32 per term or £65 per academic year (Michaelmas 2020 to Trinity 2021 and includes the long summer vac). The membership fee is payable by a charge to battels.
Payments

Battels
An account is kept for each student of the College. This account, known as battels, is sent out by email at the beginning of each term. Junior Members are required to make the following payments:

- the accommodation charge for the term in accordance with the Tenancy Agreement.
- the cost of food and other items, e.g. printing and photocopying, debited from the preceding term
- in the first term, a key deposit (where applicable) and caution money of £150

Accommodation rents are published in Trinity Term each year and charges are payable termly in advance.
You can view your battels account via EPOS – the online meal booking system - at any time.

The Bursary
The Financial Bursary is available to all students for assistance with financial matters. It is located in the ground floor of Pusey Quad staircase one. If you need to discuss your fees or battels please email the relevant staff members detailed below

| Financial Controller           | Julie.Hernandez@keble.ox.ac.uk | Graduate course fees |
| Accounts Assistant Battels     | Hien.Le@keble.ox.ac.uk          | Undergraduate fees   |
| Bursaries                  |                                  |                     |

Contact the College Office (college.office@keble.ox.ac.uk) for confirmation letters for banks and scholarships.

All Junior Members are required to settle amounts due to the College by Friday of 1st Week of each term and, in respect of balances outstanding at the end of Trinity Term, by 10th August.

Failure to settle Battels by the due date shall, in the absence of a reason deemed by the Bursar to be compelling, incur a fine of £15 (£30 if there has been late payment within the previous twelve months). If payment is not thereafter received within one week a further fine of £30 shall be imposed.

If you are unable to obtain the funds necessary to pay on time you should contact the Bursary immediately to discuss your circumstances. Do not wait until the payment is overdue.

Methods of payment
The following methods of payment are accepted:

1. Payment On-line
You can pay battels on-line by debit card. WE DO NOT ACCEPT PAYMENT BY CREDIT CARD

To pay on-line you will need to log on to On-Line meal bookings at https://meals.keble.ox.ac.uk/select/index.html

Use the ‘Oxford member’ link on the left hand side’; this can only be done once you have set up your single sign on account

Click on “Fees and Charges”.

Click on “Pay Battel Payment” then complete the details required.

2. Bank Transfer: details as below.

Living Costs

See information on Living Costs on the University’s website.

Meal costs

There is no ‘Hall charge’ or upfront charge for meals. There is a self-service facility for breakfast, brunch, lunch and informal Hall and all items are charged individually. The arrangements for Hall meals in 2020-21 are still to be determined in accord with the prevailing advice on social distancing and other health measures associated with Covid-19. There are no plans for Formal Halls and all meals are very likely to be self-service. As a guide, in 2019-20 the average cost of lunch was around £4.00. The average cost of a three-course dinner in the evening was £7.80. Details on meal times and arrangements will be posted before the start of Michaelmas term. A full range of option menus is available and there are daily lunch and informal Hall specials. If guests are allowed, charges for them will be 50% higher for breakfast, brunch and lunch items and plus £2 for dinner.

Payment is made to your battels via University card.

Café Keble - situated in the main College Bar – normally serves a variety of coffees, hot and cold drinks, soup, sandwiches, panini, biscuits, fruit and muffins. It is not planned to open this facility for the start of the 2020-21 and before the relevant guidelines on social distancing are changed. Payment may be made either on battels using your University card or by debit card. We do not accept cash.

H B Allen Centre café - normally serves a variety of coffees, hot and cold drinks, soup, sandwiches, panini, biscuits, fruit and muffins. It is not planned to open this facility for the start of the 2020-21 and before the relevant guidelines on social distancing are changed. Payment may be made either on battels using your University card or by debit card. We do not accept cash.

Utilities

For students living in College accommodation, there are no separate charges for electricity or any other utilities.

Living Out

Undergraduates (from second year onwards) and graduates who choose to live out of College may incur additional expenses arising from privately-rented accommodation. These may include substantial deposits. Properties occupied by only full-time students are exempt from paying Council Tax. See the Oxford City Council website on Council tax exemptions.

Students living out of College are still able to take meals in Hall and elsewhere in College.

Laundry

There are two Launderettes, one on the Parks Road site and one in the H B Allen Centre. Each has 6 washing machines and 6 dryers. Charges are currently £3.00 per wash, but drying is free of charge. Washing powder tablets may be purchased from the Lodge, current price is 50p for two tablets.

Vacation costs

Publicly-funded non-finalists who are required to stay up outside normal term dates in order to sit University examinations or to undertake extra tutorial work on a tutor’s recommendation (for example, to make up work missed through illness) shall, if living in College accommodation, not be charged rent for those additional days. Self-funded students will be charged for their accommodation at the normal accommodation rate. An undergraduate student may apply to stay up after the end of term to carry out coursework certified as essential by his or her tutor (for example, project or research work); these students and those staying to participate in a ‘Blues’ sporting event will be charged for their accommodation at the normal rate, but may be able to apply for assistance with these costs (through the College or Keble Association administered funds).

Course Costs
Any costs associated with your course of study – graduate or undergraduate – are set by the relevant Department and/or Faculty and not by the College. You should check with the relevant Department.

Some courses involve fieldtrips or electives. Keble students can apply to the Keble Association (KA) for assistance with any costs arising from these. The KA also makes grants and awards for travel and study-related activities.

Paid Work
For undergraduates, term-time employment is not permitted except under exceptional circumstances and in consultation with your tutor and senior tutor. During vacations you will be required to complete academic work and this should take priority over other commitments.

Information on paid work, internships and career opportunities can be found here.

Students on an international visa will need to consult the University’s guidelines here.

The College’s policy on paid work by graduates conforms with the University guidelines issued by Education Committee. Full-time graduate students should generally regard their studies as a full-time occupation of at least 40 hours per week, and should normally be available for academic commitments during usual working hours (i.e. 9 am to 7 pm on weekdays). Graduate students on taught courses should regard this as applying to term-time study whilst for students on research courses it applies year-round. The University therefore recommends that full-time graduate students on a taught course (such as a Master’s) do not undertake more than 8 hours’ paid work each week whilst studying.

The number of weeks of fulltime study required will depend on the course structure. Students may find they have substantial study commitments in the Christmas, Easter and summer vacations as well as the University’s three full terms of eight weeks each. Students should check the structure of their own course, and its implications for any paid work, with their department or faculty. Students on research courses (such as a DPhil) are advised that any paid work should still allow them to spend at least 40 hours per week for a minimum 44 weeks of the year on their studies.
Grants and Awards

1. Keble Association

The Keble Association (KA) is a registered charity run by former students of Keble for the benefit of current undergraduate and graduate students. Well over 100 students received grants last year.

The Keble Association considers applications for:

- Study Grants for materials, equipment, research and other related costs.
- Travel Grants with an emphasis upon humanitarian travel purposes.
- Arts Grants for personal or group arts activities.
- Internships/work experience

Application deadline: Forms and information are sent out to all students by email in 0th week each term, with the submission deadline usually in 4th week.

Study Grants are for costs not normally met by the college or departments, for example research conference costs, compulsory field study and some equipment costs.

Travel Grants are an established feature of Keble life. Humanitarian travel is the focus of the KA’s support and the likely benefits of such travel are always carefully considered by the committee.

Arts Grants are given to individual students participating in arts activities such as tours or performances and to arts clubs and groups in college. The KA are particularly keen to support new arts activities in college.

Internships/work experience grants are available to students in receipt of a university or college bursary, or otherwise able to demonstrate that they are in financial need, to help meet costs such as accommodation or travel not met by a sponsor/employer.

Can I Apply?

If you are a current undergraduate or graduate student then yes you can. Please bear in mind that this money has been given by previous students for our charitable purpose, 'To help by means of grants or loans, past and present members of the college who are in financial need'. So don't apply simply to take advantage of an opportunity – apply if you need it. Our funds are limited.

How to Apply

Application forms and information are sent out to all students by email in 0th week each term, with the submission deadline usually in 4th week. Students can also request a form from Trish Long (trish.long@keble.ox.ac.uk) at any other time. Trish can also advise on the application and whether the KA is the appropriate source of help. There are certain grant conditions that you will need to meet, and most grants require a report back to the KA that we may post on our website. All Arts, Study & Travel grant applications require a reference or letter of recommendation from your tutor/supervisor. The current Chair of the Keble Association Grants Committee Vivek Srivastava.

2. College Graduate Support Fund

There is a fund available to assist graduate students with their academic studies. Students may apply for assistance for:

- course-related equipment;
- fieldwork costs;
- attendance at relevant conferences (especially if a paper or poster is being presented);
- visits to libraries or archives outside Oxford.
Applications using the Graduate Support Fund Form should be sent with a letter of support from the student’s Supervisor, Course Advisor or College Adviser. Students will be expected to apply to parallel sources of funding, for instance from Divisions, Faculties, Departments, and from Research Council funds.

Applications for grants from the Fund may be made at any time, but must be made in advance; grants will not normally be awarded retrospectively. The maximum sum awarded to any student will not normally exceed £350 in any academic year. If you are in doubt about whether an application is appropriate, or the terms on which it should be made, please consult the College Office.

3. The Mavis Gibson award for Graduates

The Mavis Gibson award is made to graduate studying history to support costs associated with course-related travel. There is no separate application for this award, which is considered alongside the Keble Association’s grants and awards in Trinity term.

4. The Owen Travelling Scholarship

The Owen Travelling Scholarship of £600 for travel in connection with the study of classical antiquity, to be awarded to an undergraduate studying either Ancient and Modern History, Classical Archaeology and Ancient History or Archaeology and Anthropology, or a postgraduate studying Classical Archaeology. There is no separate application for this award, which is considered alongside the Keble Association’s grants and awards in Trinity term.

5. The Faith Ivens-Franklin Travel Fund for Graduates

This fund assists current graduate students of the College to undertake travel in connection with their academic studies. Funds are available to one or more graduate students up to the value of £2,000.00 in total; individual awards are generally around £300. The College Office will issue a call for applications early in Trinity Term, to be decided by mid-June.

6. The Ian Walker Prize for Graduates

The Ian Walker Prize (£140) provides funds for limited research project, travel to conferences or summer vacation project work. It is available to undergraduates and postgraduates in science subjects. They are emailed in Hilary term with details of how to apply.

7. Language courses

The Oxford University Language Centre normally offers a Fast Track Modern Languages pathway (formerly the OPL programme). The fee for 2019-20 was £410. As of Trinity term 2020, the OULC is only running remote learning courses. The College will reimburse 50%, payable on completion of the course at the end of Trinity term. Please let the College Office have a copy of your course registration form (which will have been signed by your tutor) when you start. When you have finished, send a copy of the course completion certificate to the College Office; you will be reimbursed on your battels.
Blues Fund – University Sports and Activities

There is a fund to support costs arising from participation in University sport. It is administered by the Senior Treasurer for Junior Members’ Activities, Professor Ed Peel.

1. The College acknowledges that those junior members who play sport at the University level often incur considerable additional expenditure. It is not possible to seek to reimburse all such expenditure but some contribution is made from the Junior Members Activities’ Budget by way of the Blues Fund. It is not a condition of applying for funding from this scheme that you should be awarded a Blue. Any representation of the University will suffice.

2. The procedure for allocation of the Fund is as follows:

2.1 The type of expenditure normally covered/not covered is indicated below:

Items of expenditure normally covered:
- sports equipment - bats, hockey sticks, footballs etc.
- competition entry fees, subs etc.
- hire of facilities: court time etc.
- refereeing payments
- travel (if required) outside Oxford; NOT taxis to sports grounds within Oxford
- accommodation, if required to stay out of Oxford (but not meals)

Items of expenditure NOT normally covered:
- kit/clothing, including any footwear, team strips and club uniforms (Blues blazers etc.)
- refreshments, including training meals
- medical treatment

If any items on this list appear in a claim, they will simply be deleted. Any items not on either list will be left to the discretion of the Senior Treasurer whose decision will be final.

2.2 NB. Receipts must be obtained for all claims which may be made. By this is meant an official receipt from, e.g. a supplier; NOT a receipt slip of the type sold as booklets which anybody can fill in. No application for reimbursement will be accepted without a receipt. If official receipts are not available, a letter in support may be accepted as evidence of expenditure, but only if it is signed by the Senior Member for the University sport in question. Such letters will NOT be accepted and the claims in question will not be processed, if it is signed by another junior member.

2.3 By no later than the end of Week 6 in Trinity Term, a claim must be submitted to the Senior Treasurer, along with supporting receipts. There is no application form. A short letter setting out the items claimed for and the total amount will suffice, but receipts alone will not. There is no extension of this deadline, so if a claim is invalid because, e.g., it is not in accordance with para 2.2 there will be no opportunity to re-submit it.

2.4 The allocation of the Blues Fund is at the discretion of the Senior Treasurer but, ordinarily, it will be allocated on a pro rata basis dependent on the level of valid claims made.

Internships

Information on internships and careers-related opportunities is available from the Careers Service website

Application can be made to the Keble Association for financial support for internships.
Academic awards and prizes

College prizes may be awarded by tutors as follows:

i) for a first-class performance in a College examination;
ii) for sustained excellence in tutorial essays or analogous assignments and for academic improvement;
iii) for a Distinction or a First in the First Public Examination

Other College Prizes

The Michael Zola Prize of £250, for outstanding performance in First Public Examinations by a student from a non-selective, non fee-paying school/college, open to all undergraduates from such schools/colleges but with a preference for Humanities. No application is needed.

The Denis Meakins Prize of up to £500 for the best ‘all round’ performance in Chemistry, taking into account academic achievement and extra-curricular contributions to the College. Open to all undergraduates reading Chemistry, this award may be divided between two or more students and participation in University level activities (e.g. sport) may be taken into account in assessing contribution to college life.

The Denis Shaw Fund awards a prize of up to £170 for exceptional performance in University examinations in Physics.

The Roquette Palmer Prize of £200 for proficiency in French, awarded after examination in the Trinity Term, and open to all undergraduate members of the College in their first two years of residence; the prize will not be awarded to any candidate who, in the opinion of the examiner, is a native speaker of the language.

The Harris Prize (£200) is awarded to the undergraduate achieving the best performance in the Final Honour School of Jurisprudence.

The Franklin Prize for Engineering Science (£370) at Keble awarded to for the best overall performance in the Final Honours School in Engineering Science.

The Franklin Prize for the best Engineering Science Project (£370) at Keble is given to the student awarded the highest result in the 4th Year project.

The Gordon Smith Dissertation Award(s) (up to £200) is awarded for demonstrating excellence in research undertaken for an undergraduate dissertation.

The Deidre Tucker Prize (typically £500 for each) Law, Mathematics and Modern Languages. Subject tutors will contact second years with details when required.

£200 prizes are awarded to the students with the best College First Class or Distinction result in each subject (or subject grouping) in the First Public Examination. These prizes are awarded at dinner in Hall at the start of Michaelmas Term. The awards include the named prizes of: the Geffen Prize for English; the Harris Prize for Law; the Bennett Prize for Engineering; and the Talyarkhan Prize for PPE.
Undergraduate Scholarships

Scholarships are awards made by the Governing Body in recognition of academic excellence. The annual value of a Scholarship is £200, credited to battels in Michaelmas term, and the Scholars is also entitled to two free meals a week in Hall during term (but no more than four formal halls per term). This entitlement will need to be revised in light of the absence of formal halls from the start of 2020-21. Scholars are entitled to wear a special gown and are normally invited annually to a Scholars’ Dinner.

The Governing Body will elect to scholarships students declared by their Director of Studies to have shown consistent excellent academic performance through their results in the First Public Examination, College Examinations, and/or other assessments. Awards are subject to renewal each year. Governing Body may at any time withdraw such a scholarship, or a College Organ, Choral or Music Scholarship, on the recommendation of the Director of Studies or the Senior Dean, if the holder’s academic work or behaviour is deemed to be of an inadequate standard.
Financial Support

Although you might think that the costs of studying at Oxford are much higher than elsewhere, this isn’t necessarily the case. In addition to the various sources of direct financial support (outlined below) there are various ways in which costs are kept to reasonable levels. Keble offers good quality accommodation at affordable rents as well as meals in Hall (there are no separate Hall charges, you just pay for what you eat). You can live in the centre of the city, so there are no additional daily transport costs. Plus, there are extras such as travel and research grants from the Keble Association.

The College will endeavour, within the resources available, to ensure that all Keble students will not have to worry about funding during their time at College. Alumni and friends of the College recognise that the costs of studying at University are increasing. Through their generous donations the College is able to offer financial support to those in need. This support includes the Oxford Bursaries which are part-funded by the University and the College, but also additional funding where there is genuine need and further funding to support those experiencing unforeseen hardship. Funds are awarded to students in all years of undergraduate study according to the means-testing process completed upon application.

Financial support is mainly directed at assisting with students’ on-course costs, but there are also some funds to help with expenses incurred as a result of course- and career-related activities during the vacations.

Government Access to Learning Funds

The University is allocated some funds by the Government to assist students (Home fees only) with financial difficulties. For further information please go to the University’s website here.

If you need any advice about an application please contact trish.long@keble.ox.ac.uk.

Oxford Bursaries

Jointly funded by the College and University, there is a comprehensive bursary programme in place to support Home/EU undergraduates. There is no separate application process for Oxford’s bursaries as these are based on the household income assessment carried out by your regional funding agency. Full details of the schemes are available here.

Keble Bursaries

As a complement to the funding available from Oxford University and the government, Keble is able to offer additional support to students who need it. Keble Bursaries are funded by former students and friends of Keble, via the Talbot Fund, to support the current and next generation of students at Keble. No separate application is required for these.

Keble College Student Support Fund

The College has some funds available to financially support all students, including non-Home and EU students. These are designed to assist students whose circumstances have significantly changed since arriving at College, including for unforeseen and unforeseeable reasons. All applications are treated in confidence. There are two ways of applying, depending on the nature of the need:

1) The Student Support Committee meets once a term to consider applications for general and longer-term support.
There is an application form for the Support Fund. Please complete both parts of the application form and email these to the College Welfare Officer, Mrs Long (trish.long@keble.ox.ac.uk) by the following deadlines:

Michaelmas and Hilary Terms - no later than 4.00 p.m. on Tuesday of 4th Week
Trinity Term - no later than 4.00 p.m. on Wednesday of 2nd Week

2) For requests either involving smaller amounts or for emergencies that can’t wait for a termly meeting, applications can be made direct to the Welfare and Disability Officer, Trish Long (trish.long@keble.ox.ac.uk).

Student support funds are finite and therefore the College makes decisions on applications based on appropriate criteria. Each application is assessed on an individual basis but priority is given to students on course and to students who can demonstrate good evidence of financial need. Individuals in need of support will also be expected to apply to other sources, such as the University or (for Home and EU students) UK government funding.

Graduates who have recently signed a financial declaration that their fees and living costs will be met for the duration of their course are unlikely to be awarded financial support. This applies particularly to graduates on one-year courses. It is understood, however, that things can change during a longer course and individuals should apply if their circumstances have significantly changed. It is unlikely that the College will be able to provide long-term financial assistance; in such circumstances it may be advisable to suspend status until the underlying problem can be resolved.

In general, support is more likely to be provided when an applicant can show that they have taken reasonable steps to moderate their expenditure.

University Hardship Fund

The specific remit of the University Hardship Fund is to provide for unforeseen financial circumstances experienced by students. This means that a student’s financial circumstances will need to have changed for the student to be eligible for assistance. Any undergraduate or graduate students from any country are entitled to apply for assistance from the University Hardship Fund, as long as the criterion of unforeseen financial difficulty is met. There are deadlines for application once each term.

The Vice-Chancellor's Fund.

Funding for Students with Disabilities

Via the University there is financial support for students with disabilities, including the disabled Students Allowance for UK students. Full information is available from the University website

Note: You should apply for DSA as soon as you have been made an offer (conditional or unconditional) to study at the University of Oxford as it can take up to 14 weeks to process DSA applications and for support to be fully implemented.

Estranged Students

Undergraduates who, for whatever reasons, are estranged from their family and therefore unable to find suitable accommodation out of term, may be eligible for support from the University and the College. This may include financial assistance as well as access to accommodation, including out of term time. If you think you need assistance, please contact the Welfare and Disability Officer, Trish Long (trish.long@keble.ox.ac.uk), who can discuss your situation in confidence.

The University has signed up to the Stand Alone Pledge for students without family support.

Childcare costs

Information for student parents can be found here.

Information on assistance with childcare costs from the University can be found here.
Financial Difficulties: sources of advice

If you run into financial difficulties there are people you can contact for advice, both inside and outside the College. It’s often the case that financial worries are inseparable from other concerns, for example about health, family and your studies. Details of the College Welfare team are found elsewhere on the College website.
