

Keble College Fairtrade Policy

Keble College supports the principles, ethos and aspirations of Fairtrade and commits to using, selling and promoting Fairtrade products in its Dining Hall and Cafes.

Keble's Catering Team

Keble's Catering Team will implement and oversee compliance with the Fairtrade Policy. It will be fully representative of the Colleges student, academic and conference activity.

- The Catering Fairtrade Team will be chaired by the Catering Services Manager
- The Catering team will work to promote Fairtrade products and explore how their sale and use can be expanded
- On a yearly basis the Team will report to the College Sustainability Committee

Sale of Fairtrade Products

- Keble will offer Fairtrade products in the dining hall and both cafes
- Where the selling of Fairtrade products is not feasible for reasons of price, supply, availability or contractual obligations, Keble will commit to begin selling Fairtrade as soon as practicably possible
- Sale of Fairtrade products will be incorporated into future contractual arrangements with relevant external service providers and suppliers
- Finding ways to increase supply of Fairtrade goods will be explored on an ongoing basis

Hospitality

- Keble College will commit to serving Fairtrade food and drink at all internal meetings and commercial events
- The serving of Fairtrade products will be incorporated into future contractual arrangements with suppliers

Promotion and Campaigning

Keble College will promote the sale and use of Fairtrade products in a variety of ways:

- Fairtrade products and promotions will be displayed prominently in the cafes where Fairtrade items are sold wherever possible
- Fairtrade products will be promoted at events such as Fairtrade Fortnight and at other in College Green/Sustainability events
- Fairtrade products will be promoted on an ongoing basis through web and social media accounts controlled by the Catering Services Manager

Review

This policy will be reviewed annually by the Domestic Bursar
