The Record
There is greater optimism in the air this Michaelmas Term by comparison with last year. I hope that this reflects enthusiasm for the opening up of the College again as the constraints associated with the Covid pandemic ease, rather than the recognition that this will be the last time I undertake this particular epistolary task before I step down as Warden in September 2022. Whatever the reality, I would like to take this last opportunity to thank Emeritus Fellows Dr Brian Powell and Dr Colin Bailey for their commitment to the task of editing The Record throughout my time as Warden. It is very greatly appreciated.

The principal purpose of this letter is to record the changes that have occurred in the Fellowship in the 2020–21 academic year. I shall first mention the retirement in December 2020 of the Bursar, Mr Roger Boden, whose lengthy and outstanding service to the College was recognised in his election to an Honorary Fellowship. Other Governing Body Fellows who have moved on include Professor Stephen Payne, who first came to Keble as a Research Fellow in 2004, becoming a Tutorial Fellow in 2006. Over the summer of 2021 he moved to take up a professorship at the National Taiwan University in Taipei. At the very end of the academic year Professor Dieter Jaksch also resigned his position as a Tutorial Fellow of Physics, to which he was elected in 2003, in order to take up a professorial role in the Institute of Laser Physics at the University of Hamburg. Professors Payne and Jaksch have subsequently been elected Emeritus Fellows of the College.

Four Fellows by Special Election have also departed. The two longest serving are Dr Rhys Evans and Professor Martin Farrall. They both stood down from their longstanding undergraduate teaching roles in Biomedical and Medical Sciences at or around their retirements from their main roles in the NHS and the University, respectively. Professor Tom Higham gave up his Fellowship on resigning as Director of Oxford’s Radiocarbon Accelerator Unit in the School of Archaeology in order to take up a post at the University of Vienna. And Dr Catherine Paxton resigned her Fellowship on leaving her University post as the Registrar of the Social Sciences Division.

Finally, Dr Wahbi El-Bouri resigned as Research Fellow and Tutor in Engineering in order to take up a tenured post at Liverpool University.

In Dr El-Bouri’s place we welcomed Dr Akash Trivedi to the College. And, in addition to the arrivals signalled in last year’s Record, Dr Alfonso Bueno Orovio and Dr Christian Fielder Camm, we have also welcomed the computer scientist Professor Joël Ouaknine as a Fellow by Special Election in consequence of Keble’s association with the Emmy Network, and Dr Rod Dacombe, who is a Senior Lecturer in Politics at King’s College London, as a Visiting Fellow for the year, beginning in April 2021.

In addition to Roger Boden, there were three other additions to the Honorary Fellowship, namely, Mr John Bridcut, an alumnus and documentary film maker, Mr Andreas Michaelis, an alumnus and since 2020 the German Ambassador to the Court of St James, and Sir Larry Siedentop, formerly an Emeritus Fellow. Sadly, I have also to report the recent death of an Honorary Fellow, Professor Raoul Franklin who died on 7 October 2021 at the age of 86. An obituary will be published in the next edition of The Record.

There was also distressing news with the sudden and unexpected death of Professor Angus Hawkins, a Fellow of the College since 2013, shortly after Christmas 2020. A full obituary is available on page 42.

A report is not available this year because club activity was limited by pandemic restrictions.

Keble Cricket had a tumultuous year to say the least. With a season governed by uncertainty and risk assessments, bureaucracy and poor weather occasionally felt like our greatest adversaries. However, I can't fault the efforts from the boys as we entered a ‘rebuilding phase’ between historic and inevitable future cup runs.

Our first issue arose in a cruel perversion of Sunday cricket tradition when we found ourselves with, ‘all the idea, no gear’. Troubled by a lack of batting equipment we created a kit-sharing ethos in KCCC. Previous years had focused on the mantra ‘look good, play good’. How short-sighted. This newly threatening display of ragtag kit made for menacing optics fit for Dr Frankenstein himself. Whilst some referred to our hodgepodge outfitting and ropey attempt at a blue strip as ‘village’, I’m proud of how each Keble cricketer played for the shirt throughout.

Admittedly, numbers had been sparse at Uni Parks nets in the weeks leading up to the T20 John’s League and Cuppers competitions. The boys who did come along blew away cobwebs with remarkable aplomb, even prompting one old bloke on a park bench to mutter ‘shot’ on occasion. I was even further reassured by the rest of the squad not even needing to train; clearly, they were gun.

Unfortunately, essay-crises and finals simply didn’t want to see the boys joué, ruling out some talented cricketers for our first game against the floppy-haired boys of Queens. With chat even worse than their lids, these boys had to be good at cricket to make up for their personalities. And to be fair to them, they were quite good at cricket.

A talented batting line-up, including Lindsay’s customarily taped Surrey helmet, started the game off well for Keble. After some dubious self-umpiring decisions to see Endacott out LBW, the collapse swiftly followed a promising start. Our JCR President did all he could to stop this in outright refusing to leave the pitch after clearly being run out. Fair play. We weren't much better with the ball. Millford misunderstood my request of bowling a few bouncers by exclusively bowling balls which bounced three times. Crossed wires.

Univ were also pretty good in our next game and seemed to care quite a lot about the rules, often inclined to petulant outbursts. Although, tactical changes brought a sense of opportunity. OUCC Blue Mohammed further shored up the batting line-up and eternal clubman Knight even brought in his brother as a ringer. Despite this, we did in fact lose again, ending our season.

Overall, KCCC can be very proud of the COVID-secure season we’ve enjoyed. Special thanks go to our groundsman and hero Ade without whom we wouldn’t have been able to play at all. Though we lost both our matches, we undoubtedly learned a lot, including water boy Lochrane who learned to count by scoring against Queens. Finn Nelson also played.

Having secured promotion on the last day of the previous season, we were raring to go in our quest for a second consequent promotion, this time to the Premier Division. We also had dreams of reaching the Cuppers final and playing in front of a raucous Keble crowd. Alas, it wasn’t to be. A Michaelmas Term usually full of football, including the much-anticipated Ghosts game, fell victim to risk assessments and a national lockdown. We did, however, manage to host trials and a handful of in-house games, introducing an enthusiastic group of freshers to the club. Hilary wasn’t much better—a few kickabouts here and there at Oxford but still no access to Keble sports ground’s hallowed turf and no sign of competitive football. But as restrictions were lifted over the Easter break, things started to pick up. In Trinity, we played three 11-a-side games: a tough-fought draw with Mansfield, a loss against a good Catz side and a comprehensive win over St Anne's. We also took part in an inter-college 5-a-side tournament, where we narrowly missed out on qualification to the knockout stages, winning four matches out of six. We progressed massively as a team throughout the term and by the end, we actually had some level of organisation and something resembling fitness. If the freshers can maintain their outstanding level of commitment and put in some work on their chat over summer, I have no doubt we will have a highly successful season next year.

A big thank you to our groundsman Ade Roche, whose hard work meant we had two excellent 5-a-side pitches to play on all term. Similarly, the fact that we actually had two pitches was only made possible by generous alumni donations which allowed us to purchase an extra set of 5-a-side goals—many thanks to all those who contributed.

2021/22 Captain and Player of the Season: Theo Lewis
As with most sport, the 2020–21 season has been a strange one for women's football at Keble. With the country entering another lockdown halfway through Michaelmas, the competition scheduled to start in fifth week was for obvious reasons unable to go ahead. A football-less Hilary followed but Trinity has allowed us to return to the pitch. We have had numerous training sessions and played in a 5–a-side competition against other colleges. Some highlights of the competition included a 7–4 victory against Exeter/Somerville and a 10–2 victory against Univ. A couple of unfortunate injuries and results meant we narrowly missed out on the knockout stages of the competition, but we have since played a few friendlies and had more training sessions. It has been great to welcome new players from both Keble and Hertford, as well as play with some familiar faces. All players have shown great commitment and desire and have played some excellent football too! It has been a pleasure captaining the team this year and I’m looking forward to many more Keble successes once our new captain Thiooa takes over. I have every confidence that she will make an incredible captain and I cannot wait to see where this team can go! I’ll certainly be keeping a close eye on the team’s progress while on my year abroad in France.

Despite only being able to play in Trinity Term this year, with the pandemic having cancelled the league that normally runs throughout Michaelmas and Hilary, Keble Netball has had its most successful year to date. Trinity saw the club’s membership double, total of sixty-four boys and girls getting involved across the term. Plans are in place to mark out a second court, so that we will be able to accommodate the club’s growth in the coming years. This year we wanted to introduce Sunday morning training sessions, to further the development of the squad and offer more opportunities for students of all abilities to get involved with the sport without feeling the pressure to compete. Our training sessions were a massive success, with committed members showing up every weekend to train, play and prepare for matches. This year was also the first year I am aware of in a long time where Keble was able to put forward a mixed team, with a handful of boys becoming committed members of the successful Cuppers League team. Where Cuppers normally runs as a one-day tournament, this year it ran as a league, where KCNC placed 4th in division one. Our most impressive match saw a 14–4 win against Wadham, but the most stand-out takeaway from the league was by far the cohesiveness with which the girls and boys played together, given the short time we had to prepare and form a team! The netball crowns will be passed on to Elodie Taylor and Eleanor Dunlop for next year, who we have no doubt will continue to nurture the growth and success that this season saw with their enthusiasm and love for the sport.

After two years of no racing and a pandemic later, Keble College Boat Club participated in Summer Tórpeds (Tuesday, 8 June – Friday, 11 June). Our training plans consisted of four or five sessions per week on the water, interspersed with circuits/weight sessions over zoom. Although we didn’t have access to the gym or erg facilities for most of the year, the squad completed a significant amount of cross-training to keep themselves in peak physical performance in preparation for this regatta.

On the Men’s side, we entered two crews for this regatta with the primary goal of moving up the Divisions to establish ourselves as a fierce contender for years to come. The Men’s 2\textsuperscript{nd} VIII consisted of eager and dedicated novice members that were keen to establish themselves on the river. After a gruelling and intense week, they finished at the top of Division 5 (2\textsuperscript{nd}).

The Men’s 1\textsuperscript{st} VIII consisted of a combination of senior KCBC members as well as current/former Blues rowers. Starting at the Top of Division 2, Keble M1 bumped two colleges (Hertford and Trinity College) over the four days of competition and finished in Division 1 as 8\textsuperscript{th} on the river, which is the highest we have been in thirty-two years (since 1989).

As for almost everything this academic year, rowing too was not the same as it had been in previous years. We had no idea how much racing, if any, we would be able to do and what the year ahead was going to bring. The previous year had been marred by flooding and cut short by Covid, and the women were determined to prove to everyone why Keble Women were one of the fastest squads on the river.

Michaelmas brought a lot of enthusiasm and we had a huge number of signups—mainly because the Covid protocols were not really affecting the way we were conducting sessions on the water. Erg and gym sessions were limited, but we were able to keep people engaged with water sessions. However, successive lockdowns in November and over Christmas meant we were forced to have Zoom circuit sessions from our bedrooms and gardens for the remainder of Michaelmas and the entirety of Hilary. That did put a little bit of a damper on things, and at the end of Hilary, we were not entirely sure what Trinity was going to bring.

The announcement of an ease in lockdown coincided with the start of the Easter vac, which meant we could return to the water and the hope we could get a bumps campaign in after all; the first one in almost two years. There was a significant reduction in people who decided to stay on, but there were enough of us to potentially enter a bumps crew. Once Summer Torpids was confirmed and a crew was finalised, it all came down to gelling and working together. Excitement was building and we were determined to make do with the six weeks to deliver as fast a crew as possible. We were aware that with a distinct lack of Blues rowers, we were not going to be as fast as other college crews. The mission of our six week project instead was not to win blades, but was to prove to everyone why Keble Women were a crew that belonged there and if they were going to want to bump us, we were going to give them a serious run for their money. We had a ridiculously fast race start, faster than any other previous Keble W1. While we have been called ‘Ugly and Uncoordinated’ (catch us with that on T-shirts next year!) by certain commentators on the livestream, the way we raced proved otherwise. It may have not been the result we had wanted but it was still something we could be proud of and walk away with our heads held high, proving what we set out to prove.

Nothing in this year could have been possible without our coach, Tom. He was the glue that held us all together and inspired us to keep pushing and reach our true potential and is the reason the women’s side is what it is.

Rugby (Men)
Harry Folkard

The past year has been a somewhat tricky season for KCRFC. After a successful run reaching the quarter finals of Cuppers in the 2019/2020 season, and further with the addition of a promising group of freshers at the beginning of the 2020/2021 season, the boys were eager to play some rugby after a long break. A slow return to sport early in Michaelmas meant initially no rugby was possible. Then when the return to the University Parks pitches did look likely, the November lockdown got in our way again. The story was much the same in Hilary, meaning our entire season was condensed into Trinity Term.

The focus of the term was Cuppers 7s, with Keble training weekly with a squad of fifteen players. As rules began to relax, it was even possible to start up socials again and give the first years a real taste of College rugby. The boys performed exceptionally at our 7s Cuppers qualifiers, comfortably beating Jesus and Queens in order to progress into the finals. Despite spectators technically not being allowed, the sidelines of Iffley road hosted a few fans from all the colleges for the final day, giving the tournament a real buzz. Meeting a strong Corpus/Somerville—estimated runners up of the tournament—in our first game unfortunately put us into the plate straight away. We then went on to lose narrowly to a Corpus/Somerville, ending our Cuppers 7s run.

I am exceptionally proud of the boys’ commitment to KCRFC this year given the challenges we have faced. The club was especially pleased to celebrate a full Blue for Keble finalist Will Barker, who played an important part in Oxford’s win against Cambridge this year and we look forward to a more normal season this year.
Unfortunately due to the Covid-19 pandemic and the subsequent lockdowns, it was a slow start to the women’s rugby season this year. After little happening in either Michaelmas or Hilary as Trinity came around team sports were once again a go! Given the disrupted nature of the season, we hoped to spend this final term as an extended preseason for the year to come. With a focus on recruiting new players, introducing new players and getting them comfortable on a rugby pitch, the team used their weekly training sessions to prepare for two tag tournaments: one held by the University Touch Club and played in a mixed team with Keble Men, and the other held by the Women’s Blues for OURFC. Both day tournaments exposed new players to game conditions, and helped to build a rapport within the team between players old and new, the former tournament encouraging not only team spirit but unity between the two halves of KCRFC—the men’s and women’s teams—which were only recently unified. The season, though fragmented and slow starting, promises exciting things to come...

A report is not available this year because club activity was limited by pandemic restrictions.

Keble Tennis this year has not been restricted to the summer season and instead has run all year round despite all the rain and hailstorms. We’ve had a big cohort with a wide range of skills and thanks to Kevin’s terrific coaching, the team has seen a huge improvement in technique and game mentality. Due to court limitations we could only train eight at a time, but over the course of the year, a large number of players were able to attend the sessions. We entered Cuppers and were victorious in our first match against Green Templeton to then sadly lose to Magdalen where Keble put up a fight and some impressive points were scored. We also organised a friendly against St Hugh’s as a pre-exam stress relief, which was thoroughly enjoyed by both sides. Many thanks to Josh Gordon who has been a fantastic captain and will be missed. We look forward to seeing more friendly faces from the new cohort next year and more victories to come.

The majority of our yoga practices took place over Zoom this year due to government restrictions on group exercise. Our instructor focused mainly on the Ashtanga primary series, which is a dynamic form of yoga and allowed regular attendees to easily track progress. The classes were well attended during Michaelmas, but this dwindled in Hilary—perhaps due to Zoom fatigue? We were able to have four weeks of in-person yoga during Trinity Term, with classes held in the main site marquee and in University Parks. Having outdoor, sunset classes proved very relaxing, and could be a fixture even in non-COVID times. This year, the MCR kindly funded classes to continue through the Easter vacation for MCR members that reside in Oxford out of term time. Undergraduate members joined for some mid-term sessions funded by the JCR, but it would be great to drum up some more interest from the JCR next year.

This last year has been a year like no other in terms of access and outreach work given that the majority of this usually takes place in person and this past academic year has been characterised by successive lockdowns, online learning and Covid-19 restrictions. That being said, the amount of things Keble at Large has still managed to do this year has been incredible.

Our social media presence has grown immensely this year. Our Instagram (@kebleatlarge) has seen posts from 21 different Keble students discussing their journeys to Oxford and their experiences as students here, 29 day in the life story takeovers, 15 infographics demystifying both the Oxford admissions process and life at Oxford, and 3 IGTV videos answering questions about specific subjects.

Late at the end of MT20, KAL also successfully launched several videos on YouTube with current Keble students giving insight into their own interview experience and offering advice for those having interviews in the previous round of admissions (Dec 2020). These videos will be an invaluable resource for future interviewees for years to come. Since then, we have also created and published videos Debunking Oxford myths, and giving room tours of the Accommodation at Keble. You can see these here: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCtyajlHcRe8VhM79z0dnZ_A

This year we have also set up a brand new blog, a place for prospective applicants to learn more about Keble and Oxford University. Each Subject Guide provides a window into the life of a current Keble student in their own words. Subject Guides already ‘live’ include Engineering, Computer Science, English, Modern Languages, Maths, Maths and Computer Science, Geography, Theology and Religion, Medicine—with more to follow. https://kebleatlarge.wixsite.com/mysite

The Keble at Large Outreach Committee and I have also put on two successful virtual events for students from our link region of Birmingham and the West Midlands. The first event was for a small group of thirty Year 9s and 10s, introducing them to the concept of studying at university and Oxford early on. The second, our Y12 Admissions Information Day, was an event for which 130 students signed up from all across the link region, and for which over forty Keble students volunteered and led sessions giving invaluable advice about all aspects of the admissions process.

I have been amazed all year at how willing Keble students are to give up time in their very busy schedules to help inspire the next generation of Oxford students and encourage those from underrepresented backgrounds to apply. I have truly loved every moment of being Keble at Large President this year, and am so thankful to everyone who has helped out this year, but a special mention must go to those on the committee: Ayaat Yassin-Kassab, Caitlin Murray, Elena Buccisano, Ella Keenan, Ellen Hendry, Farha Uddin, Maia Hall, Saffron Pougher, Stephanie Moon and Yetunde Kehinde. I am eternally grateful for all of their hard work and commitment. I have no doubt that my successor for next year, Melissa Turgut, will do an incredible job.

As might be expected, this has been a very quiet year for the Martin Esslin Society. The pandemic has meant that, very sadly, the performance of shows in the O’Reilly has been impossible. Even virtual productions and garden plays have been put off because of examinations taking place in the College, as well as the O’Reilly being temporarily transformed into extra study space. However, we’ve spent Trinity Term planning for a big comeback of student theatre at Keble: we’re delighted to be hosting the tragic Murder in Argos, as well as an exciting new musical, Ocean Madness. Like all those involved in student theatre, we can’t wait for the revival of the year ahead.

An insider looking in may think that this has been a quiet year for KCMS. However, we were able to increase our ‘virtual’ output and, behind the scenes, the committee has been busy adapting and rebranding the Music Society in preparation for what we hope will be a fantastic year for the 2021/22 committee!

In August, to combat the ‘lockdown blues’, KCMS launched ‘Sunday Shuffle’. Each week a playlist was created by a member of the college and then released via our revamped website and social media platforms (Website: http://www.keblemusic.com; Facebook: Keble College Music Society; Instagram: @keblecollegemusicsoc; Twitter @keblemusicsoc). ‘Sunday Shuffle’ enabled a wider section of the Keble community to engage with the Music Society which in turn has increased, and will continue to increase, the variety of music that KCMS engages with.

Although we weren’t able to do everything we had hoped to do this year, we hope that you can see that we still had a very productive year! I would like to thank Katharine (Treasurer), Janey (Secretary), and Saffron (Recitals) for everything they have done on the committee this year—their skills and support have been invaluable. Next year’s committee are raring to go and there are exciting plans already on the horizon—bring on 2021/22!

THE CHAPEL

The Chaplain, Revd Nevsky Everett, writes:

As in all areas of College life, this past year has been a challenging one for the Chapel and its community but there have been many blessings, too. We were able to continue our worship in Chapel and this was live-streamed throughout the year. We have new equipment thanks to a number of kind and generous donors, and so we hope that we can continue to make our worship accessible to our alumni and friends in the future.

Many of our usual social events were live-streamed or moved online. In Michaelmas we had a fruitful discussion series on ways of praying, and one of the highlights of the term for me was our exploration of Ann Wroe’s collection of poetry, Francis: A Life in Songs. The online format meant that we were able to have Br Chris Martin of the Society of St Francis with us, and his wisdom and insight into the Franciscan tradition were a great gift.

In Hilary, our annual Holocaust Memorial Day service happened online and we were pleased to have as our speaker Fr Richard Peers, SMMS, the Sub Dean of Christ Church. As ever, it was an extraordinarily moving occasion, even given the constraints of the online format. We also had a Lockdown photo project, Finding Light, which had a wide participation from across College and showed the immense creativity of our students and staff.

Trinity Term was the first time that we were able to have a full complement of guest preachers, and it was a joy to hear the reflections of speakers from a number of Christian traditions and backgrounds. In time-honoured tradition, the Choir sang matins from the Chapel roof on Ascension Day, and the warmer weather meant that we were able to socialise outside and enjoy some of those aspects of community life that had been put on hold for the previous year.

I hope that in the new academic year you will feel able to join us in person or online, and please do keep us in your prayers as you are in ours.

PARISHES UPDATE

The Chaplain, Revd Nevsky Everett, writes:

One of the many blessings of Keble Chapel life is the wider community of parishes of which Keble is patron. Over the past year, we have not been able to hold our annual events for the parishes, though I did lead a study day on Syriac Christianity for the clergy of our livings in January.

A number of parishes have undergone pastoral reorganisation in the last year, and we are delighted to have made appointments in St Martin, Low Marple (Chester); United Benefice of Padstow St Merryn, St Issey, Trevone and Little Petherick (Truro); St Dunstan, Mayfield (Chichester); The Benefice of Dulverton with Brushford, Brompton Regis, Upton and Skiligate (Bath and Wells); The Ascension, Lavender Hill and St Philip and St Bartholomew, Battersea (Southwark); and the Benefice of Wight, West, Comprising Brightstone, Brook, Calbourne, Freshwater, Mottistone, Newtown, Shalfleet, Shorwell with Kingston, Thorley, Totland Bay, and Yarmouth (Portsmouth).

BURSAR’S UPDATE

The Bursar, Stephen Cooke, writes:

My first day at Keble in January 2021 saw the announcement of a new national COVID lockdown and the start of Hilary Term 2021 marked an unwelcome set-back in our recovery from the pandemic. I sense there had been a degree of optimism in Michaelmas 2020: students had returned, all rooms were occupied and there were at least some social events in ‘The Hive’ on Newman Quad. These positives had, however, been offset by continued social distancing, enforcement of household bubbles and eating from takeaway boxes. Of course, there was still no life in the conference business but it felt as though the underlying financial position was perhaps stabilising. As a result of the new lockdown undergraduate occupancy fell to just under 50% with graduate occupancy at around 70% and no hope of any Conference recovery over the Easter vacation. Trinity Term was much improved with all students having returned once again. However, in most aspects of College life it proved impossible to return to normal—yes, the sportsground re-opened but College crockery remained unused.

The total cost of the pandemic to the College measured from March 2020 to July 2021 was just over £4m, and that is net of the first year of savings from the 2020 redundancy programme and other cost saving initiatives and also after the benefit of a one-off exceptional level of drawdown from the endowment last year. In a normal year before the pandemic, stripping out cashflows associated with development of The H B Allen Centre, net College annual cashflow was just over £1.0m positive, so up to the end of July 2021, COVID has cost the College nearly four years of normal annual surplus.
While COVID losses have continued since August 2021 in so far as the conference business is not running at anything like previous levels, the business has at least been successfully restarted over the summer. We have served clients across all of our key areas of activity: commercial conferences and dinners, academic conferences and dinners, bed and breakfast bookings and weddings. We are hoping that the conference business will be able to deliver around 50% of pre-pandemic revenues during the current financial year.

I can also report positive news on the value of the endowment which has increased to nearly £59m even though we took advantage of the opportunity to draw down at around twice the usual level this year. The significant growth in the endowment was due to particularly strong investment performance from Oxford University Endowment Management.

I note that in his report from two years ago my predecessor stated that ‘the challenge for the College now is to move as seamlessly and painlessly as possible from capital spending to cash accumulation’. We now have a total of just over £44m of medium to long term debt and my absolute priority is to focus on a return to cash accumulation such that we can develop a realistic plan for debt repayment. While this is a major challenge, I am encouraged by what I have seen so far in Michaelmas Term 2021 as College activity levels and associated income streams gradually begin to improve.

FELLOWS’ OBITUARIES

Angus Brian Hawkins

Geoffrey Thomas, Director of the Department for Continuing Education (1986–2007), President of Kellogg College (1990–2007), and Professor Tom Buchanan, Fellow of Kellogg College, Professor of Modern British and European History, Department for Continuing Education, write:

Angus Hawkins, who died unexpectedly on 31 December 2020 at the age of 67, was not only an acclaimed historian of Victorian politics, but also a gifted tutor and a successful academic administrator, who improved every institution that he worked for. He had studied as an undergraduate at the University of Reading, prior to taking his PhD at the London School of Economics. Here, influenced by the historian John Vincent, Angus devoted himself to the politics of the 1850s, a period once somewhat overlooked by scholars as falling between the reform era of the 1830s and the more firmly defined party politics of the later Victorian centuries. His first book, published in 1987, Parliament, Party and the Art of Politics in Britain, 1855–59, was the first step towards giving this period—and its principal politicians—their due recognition. He was soon at work on a well-received general history of politics in the period 1852–1886 (published in 1998). By the late 1980s Angus was already an associate professor at Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles, and in 1990 he was appointed to his first senior post as Principal of Harlaxton College, a study abroad centre for American students based in a Victorian manor house in Grantham. For the rest of his career the education and care of visiting students (from all countries and of all ages) would be central to his sense of academic mission.

In 1992 Angus joined the Department for Continuing Education (OUDCE) as Deputy Director in charge of International Programmes. This was a rapidly developing aspect of the department’s work, and Angus’s large portfolio of summer schools and collaborative courses grew over the years to also include courses in Leadership and Public Policy, Diplomatic Studies, and International Human Rights Law. He also developed a major new series of programmes with Chinese partners. From 2010 he became Director of all of the department’s public-facing programmes of short courses and award and degree programmes. Angus was ultimately responsible for overseeing more than 700 programmes, enrolling more than 13,000 adult learners worldwide each year. Angus travelled extensively in North America (and elsewhere) to visit partner institutions and to forge relationships with new colleagues, and his charm and relaxed manner were essential to the success of these missions.

Angus had arrived at OUDCE shortly after the creation of Kellogg College (known as “Rewley House” until 1994) and held many senior roles within the college, most notably as its longstanding Bursar. He worked closely with Geoffrey Thomas (Director of OUDCE and founding President of Kellogg, 1990–2007). They often visited the W K Kellogg Foundation at Battle Creek, Michigan, and as a result secured invaluable funding support for the growth of the college. For the period 1990–2006 the college was based within the department, and a major grant from the Kellogg Foundation allowed the college to begin to relocate to its current site on Banbury Road.

Angus’s academic interests remained focused on the middle decades of the nineteenth century, which formed the basis for his finest work, the two-volume biography of Lord Derby, published by Oxford University Press in 2007/2008. The Forgotten Prime Minister rehabilitated Derby, who had been prime minister on three occasions, and presented him as an influential figure in the development of the modern Conservative Party. The book earned high praise from reviewers: for instance, Leslie Mitchell wrote that “this is real history”, displaying complete mastery of the archives. But Angus did not rest on his laurels, producing another acclaimed book, Victorian Political Culture: ‘Habits of Heart and Mind’, in 2015. The topic of Victorian culture was close to his heart, and any visitor to his office would be greeted not only by piles of biographies and memoirs of leading politicians, but also framed prints and cartoons from the period. He was also very much at home as a convivial host at the Reform Club in Pall Mall, surrounded by statues of Victorian grandees. Angus had recently taken sabbatical and had completed a number of new writing projects which await publication. His academic eminence was recognised by the University in 2012 when he was awarded the title of Professor of Modern British History. He was already a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society.

After twenty years as a fellow of Kellogg, Angus moved to Keble College, as a Fellow by Special Election in History and (from 2018) a member of Governing Body, while retaining his recently expanded post at OUDCE. At Keble he established a research centre on Victorian Political Culture with support from Dr Ralph Walter. He also used his expertise to assist the college in its development of the Acland Hospital site into The H B Allen Centre.

Angus was thoroughly committed to the cause of adult education and was for many years a member of the Executive Committee of the Universities Association for Lifelong Learning. In 2016 he hosted the annual UALL conference. His historical expertise led to him being called to address a Houses of Parliament Committee as an expert witness for The History of Parliament Project, and his knowledge of nineteenth-century coalitions made him an in-demand speaker following the formation of the UK’s coalition government in 2010.
For all of his academic success, Angus—throughout his career at Oxford—was above all an excellent colleague and very popular tutor. He also had a deep love of music—he was an accomplished viola player and remained a devoted chamber musician. He did much to encourage younger musicians in Oxford and was chairman of the Trustees of the period instrument ensemble “Instruments of Time and Truth”. His many qualities and personal attributes made a profound contribution to three Oxford institutions, OUDCE, Kellogg and Keble, and he is sorely missed by friends and colleagues at all three. He is survived by his mother, by his wife, Esther, and by his two daughters, Emma and Kate, (both conservatoire-trained musicians).

Dr John Feneley, the Founder and, for many years, Principal of the Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies (“CMRS”), was a Fellow by Special Election at Keble from 1987 to 2015. His election to the Fellowship was a result of the close relationship between CMRS and Keble that was established in the 1970s and has continued, through various evolutions, ever since.

Born in 1943, John Feneley was educated at Clifton College and came up to Oxford in 1962 to read Theology at Wadham. After graduating he taught for a year in India before returning to Oxford to study for a doctorate in comparative mysticism. He intended to enter the priesthood and had enrolled at Cuddesdon. However, in 1968 he married Sandy Bird, a Canadian who worked in the Library at New College, and they did not find the prospect of serving in an industrial parish (a Cuddesdon focus) attractive.

Having gained his DPhil John began teaching for a tutorial college run by a Wadham friend. The students were mainly from US colleges and universities who were spending a semester in Oxford during their Junior Year. By 1975 John had concluded that a much better offering could be provided to such students by developing semester-long courses that were taught by Oxford academics. He and Sandy decided to set up what became the CMRS, selling their house in order to raise money for the venture. Initially it was accommodated at 29 Queen Street, over Burtons the Tailors, premises which for a time also housed the Gridiron and Bullingdon Clubs. But then the opportunity arose to buy a derelict shirt factory behind the Queen Street premises that had been used as a church hall. With a major donation from the Charles Wolfson Charitable Trust, the sale and leaseback of the premises and a substantial mortgage from the bank, John was able to develop St Michael’s Hall as a permanent home for CMRS, providing accommodation for twenty-eight students plus lecture rooms, a library and a Principal’s study.

It was at this stage that a formal link between Keble and CMRS was established. CMRS students became Associate Students (now Associate Members) of Keble. This meant they could use the College’s facilities, join clubs and societies, dine in Keble and participate in the JCR. Over more than four decades CMRS students have contributed to the social, cultural and sporting life of the College. Another aspect of the arrangement was that CMRS provided financial support for History at Keble, initially by part-funding a Fellowship and in more recent years by fully funding a Junior Research Fellowship.

Establishing and nurturing CMRS required enormous energy, commitment and entrepreneurial flair on John’s part. Maintaining a team of first-rate tutors required constant engagement. But the biggest challenge was to ensure a steady supply of JYA (Junior Year Abroad) students for the Autumn and Spring semesters, since the fees from these students were, for the most part, the only source of income for the Centre. Keeping the CMRS finances sound was a constant challenge, and running CMRS absorbed all of John and Sandy’s waking hours throughout their working life.

With retirement approaching, John looked to Keble to assist in preserving what he and Sandy had created. In what proved to be a protracted and at times difficult process a solution emerged in the form of a partnership between CMRS, Keble and Middlebury College. The Middlebury College-CMRS Oxford Humanities Program had become well established prior to the pandemic and, after an eighteen month hiatus, is now building again. Middlebury is a major provider of JYA programmes for US colleges and universities, and has a network of centres around the world. There is therefore every prospect that John’s remarkable legacy will live on for many years to come. John died on 6 October 2020.
ALUMNI OBITUARIES

We record with regret the deaths of the following Alumni. We are most grateful to relatives and friends who have supplied an appreciation or biographical details to supplement our own records.

David Michael Barker (1978) died on 1 February 2021 aged 60. He was educated at Sandbank School and came up to Keble to read PPE. He trained in financial services and over the next thirty years gained experience in corporate finance in banks, insurance companies, asset managers and governments as they executed projects around the world. He worked for Banker’s Trust until they merged with Deutsche Bank. He was a partner in Financial Services and Acquisitions with Ernst and Young LLP and had been chairman of Cairngorm European Finance Sector Restructuring Fund. David advised on financial services transactions and restructurings, focused on advising retail, commercial and investment banks, asset managers and alternative investors, insurance companies, mutual and co-operative financial organizations, and speciality finance companies. He joined EY in 2001 and was mostly based in London as the Corporate Finance Leader for Strategy and Transactions in EY’s Central, Eastern and South-eastern Europe and Central Asia Region. He was also on the board of Regent’s University and on the Finance and Investment Committee of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC). Last July David moved to EY Cyprus as Country Managing Partner. The company wrote ‘Despite his short time at EY Cyprus, David played a central role in setting solid foundations for our firm’s growth for the years to come.’ David was married to Elaine Miller.

Emma French Biddiscombe (2016) died in November 2020 aged 22. She was educated at Caterham School in Surrey and came up to Keble to read PPE specialising in statistical economics and Japanese government. Emma relished every moment of her time at Keble making every moment count. She was awarded the Talyarkhan Prize by Keble for achieving Distinction in Prelims (2017), then a Keble College Scholarship for academic performance for both (2017–18) (2018–19). She contributed widely to Keble, the wider University and the local community. She was a member of the JCR and Alumni officer (2017–18). She was sound and lighting for Keble’s charity pantomimes (2016–17) and marketing manager for numerous student plays (2018). She was a member of the Keble Women’s Football team winning the inter-collegiate league (2017). She joined the OURFC November 2018, played for the Blues, Panthers and KCRFC. She then became team Manager for both the Panthers and Keble’s Women’s Squad (2018–19) earning success in a varsity win for the Panthers and a Cuppers final for the KCRFC. She was said to be a fantastic training and pitch side presence, who brought people to the sport and uplifted them through their journeys. Many players who still play today were recruited to the OURFC through her passion and encouragement. In Oxford she was active for the charities Free to Be Kids (2017–20) and KEEN (2017–19) wanting to help others less advantaged or able than herself. She also found time between these exploits to DJ as ‘DJ BIDS’ at many Keble bops and charity events throughout Oxford. She graduated in 2019 and started work in the Private Client Tax Team for PKF Littlejohn LLP in Canary Wharf. She made a successful start to her ATT exams and was said by a colleague to have made a very real and positive impact during her relatively short time in the team. She faced her cancer diagnosis and treatment with the boundless fortitude she was blessed with. Her family will be joining the Keble community to hold a celebration of her short but extraordinary life in the Keble chapel November 2021.

Hugh Blessing Boe (1983) died on 16 January 2018 aged 71. He was born in the village of Naveneneve on the island of Maewo in the Solomon Islands and gained a Master’s degree from Birmingham University. He taught for many years at the Bishop Patteson Theological College in the Solomon Islands and then came up to Keble for the MPhil in Anthropology. After Keble he took the Certificate of Oriental Studies at St George’s College, Jerusalem. Hugh returned to Bishop Patteson Theological College and was made Principal from 1987 to 1996. He was ordained and on 29 June 2000 he was consecrated Bishop of the Anglican Church of Vanuatu which also covers New Caledonia. Vanuatu is one of the nine dioceses that make up the Anglican Church of Melanesia. He was visited by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Rowan Williams in July 2004. Hugh retired in July 2006 due to ill health. He is survived by his wife Anna, three sons and two daughters and grandchildren, his elderly mother Eleanor and five brothers and three sisters.

Christopher Meredith Buckmaster (1957) died on 2 November 2020 aged 82. Most of the following was kindly provided by Andrew Francis (Keble 1973). Christopher attended Rossall School in Lancashire and in his final year 1956 his father, who was Vicar of Saint Luke’s Church, Southport, sadly died leaving the family homeless. Christopher’s uncle was able to offer his mother the top floor of his house and four years later the Dean of Winchester generously gave the family a terraced house in Morley College. Christopher’s older brother had also contracted polio which had left him paralysed with no limb movement except for his left hand. Despite his turbulent home life Christopher gained a Walter Lock Scholarship at Keble to read PPE. His interest in politics became evident when he became President of the University Conservative Association. While at Oxford Christopher frequently travelled back and forth to Winchester to help his mother care for his brother. On graduating he joined Booker McConnell Ltd (1960–72) and...
Jeken Charles Allen Elwin (1972) then Stevenson and Howell (distillers of essences) (1972–74) until they were taken over by Dalgety plc (1974–90). He was sent to the newly independent Zimbabwe in the 1980s where he was appointed Director. In 1985 he introduced Prince Philip to a number of leading Zimbabwe business people during the Queen’s visit. His love and support of this country continued throughout his life. From 1991 to 1998 he was the Chief Executive Officer of the East Africa Association. Christopher was elected Ward Councillor for the Campden Ward in Kensington and Chelsea in 1994 and is remembered for his commitment to healthcare in London where he made a major contribution, organising a pan-London joint approach from the thirty-two London Boroughs on the immediate care of trauma and stroke cases. As Chairman of the Health Scrutiny Committee he promoted closer cooperation between the NHS, Public Health England and the Royal Borough. He also worked tirelessly to improve local schools. Christopher is the only male Councillor to have served as Mayor for the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea twice (2002–03 and 2012–13) and on both occasions he raised record amounts for his chosen charity. He was a trustee of many charities including the North Kensington Canalside Trust, 60 Plus, Equal People, Open Age, Kensington and Chelsea People First, Temple Trust and Brain Tumour Research Campaign. Christopher never married but found a lasting happiness with his partner Anne Hobson along with her family and his own much-loved cousins.

Peter Jackson Clulow (1958) who read Music died on 30 January 2021 aged 83.

Malcolm Davison (1953) died on 17 April 2021 aged 88. His wife Zoë wrote the following obituary: ‘Malcolm was born in Baildon, West Yorkshire in 1932. He attended Bradford Grammar School and won an Open Scholarship to Keble College in 1951. Before taking his place at Keble he undertook his National Service in the Royal Signals. Between 1953 and 1956 he read Physics at Keble where his tutor was Dr Shaw. Malcolm coxed for the College and was a member of the John Wesley and the Scottish Dance societies. He remained at Keble as postgraduate student researching “The Application of Bubble Chambers Techniques to the Study of High Energy Radiations” and his supervisor was Dr Shaw. In 1957 he married Zoë Goodall and he gained the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1961. From 1960 to 1963 he was a Lecturer/Researcher at Imperial College, London University. He then became a Fellow of the Institute of Physics. 1963 saw Malcolm move to Glasgow to work with Professor Lenihan in the Department of Medical Physics. As Head of Health Physics he had responsibility for radiation protection in hospitals in the West of Scotland. He oversaw the installation of the first scanners and MRI and set up the first breast screening clinic in Glasgow with Professor George. He worked with Professor Mason of the School of Dentistry in Glasgow and was an external examiner to the Universities of Kuala Lumpur. He also undertook work for the World Health Organisation. In 1995 Malcolm retired and he and Zoë took the opportunity to travel, exploring many countries and ancient sites such as Ulak Begs Observatory in Samarkand. They bought a seventeenth-century farmhouse in Cumbria where Malcolm planted an orchard of old northern varieties before moving to Glasgow to be near daughter Fiona. From there they visited son Ian living in New Zealand. They finally moved to Great Ayton, North Yorkshire near to daughter Caryn. Malcom continued his support for a return to care for the soil and climate action. Malcom died aged 88 years, much loved by his wife Zoë and family including four grandsons and three great grandchildren.’

Michael Edward Massey Cook (1948) died on 24 November 2020 aged 93. His daughter Pandora sent the following: ‘Michael Cook was a General Practitioner based in Exeter who devoted his life to his patients. Following school at Wellington College he read medicine at Keble College, Oxford. He played hockey for the College and was a member of the College Drama and Debating Societies. He then trained at The London Hospital as a House Surgeon in Neurosurgery under Sir Richard Ellis before joining the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital as a House Physician. It was here that he met his wife Gillian, a nurse. During his career Michael nurtured a well-known and respected practice in the centre of Exeter. He worked closely with Exeter Deaf School and St Loyes College for the disabled as well as being the appointed doctor for a number of schools. He enjoyed being close to the countryside where he could hike across Dartmoor, enjoy sailing, gliding and country picnics with his family. He was a keen environmentalist long before sustainability became a mainstream global issue. Additionally, Michael embraced the computer age using the very first BBC Micro computer in his practice to record patient data. Michael was elected President of the Devon and Exeter Medical Society during the 1980s. Following his retirement, he studied theology (gaining the Certificate of Theology from Exeter University), philosophy and wildlife which included a trip to observe crocodiles in St Lucia and campaigned tirelessly for environmental efficiency. Michael was also the Year Group Representative for the 1948s. He is survived by his wife Gillian and three children, Pandora, Peter and Paul.

Jeken Charles Allen Elwin (1972) died on 19 April 2021 aged 67. His brother Jamie wrote that ‘Charles had spent the summer of 1972 as a barman at the Kinlochbervie Hotel in Sutherland and developed “housemaid’s knee” and thus arrived at Keble to read Geography two weeks late and with his leg in plaster. Being the only Keble student that year born in Yorkshire he was awarded the Archbishop of York Scholarship. On leaving Oxford Charles joined the Atomic Energy Authority's management training scheme at their college in Cheshire. From there he was posted to Dounreay in Caithness, relatively close to his home in Eastern Ross. He soon realised that corporate life was not for him. After spending the summer as an assistant relief lighthouse keeper in the Western Isles he trained as a teacher (1977–78) at Sussex University. His first teaching job was at Felsted School in Essex where he spent the next eighteen years teaching principally Geography rising to become Head of the Department. Partly because of the east coast weather he moved to a Sixth Form College in Singapore. Charles had a great love of travel both independently, with friends and as an organiser of school field trips. He contrived to organise an annual field trip to Europe thus ensuring that his annual trip home would be paid for. After a few years in Singapore, he decided that South East Asia would be his future home and bought a house in Pattaya in Thailand for holidays and eventually retirement in 2014. He had married Philippe in Paris but although they often travelled together much of their life was spent apart as Philippe continued to live in Paris initially for work and latterly to be near his daughters. In Thailand Charles became a stalwart of the ex-pat amateur dramatic scene. He had developed prostate cancer in his mid-fifties and initial treatment brought this under control, but it later returned and spread. Covid restrictions sadly meant that neither his husband Philippe nor his family could visit him in Thailand. However, he was ably looked after by friends there. Throughout his life Charles had enjoyed a love of cricket. My last conversation with him a few days before he died centred round the Test and County Cricket Boards proposal to replace “wickets” with “outs”. It was decided that when Charles went to the great pavilion in the sky the score book would mark him down as “retired hurt”.

William (Bill) Rodney Fink (1964) died aged 77 when his home in Bodega, California caught fire on 9 February 2020. According to the Sonoma County Sheriff’s office Fink’s wife and two friends managed to escape but the flames and heat kept firefighters from being able to access the family home with Fink still inside. He was educated at Menlo School, Menlo Park, California, USA and Yale University where he rowed in the University Eight. Bill came to Keble for the Diploma in Social Studies and rowed in the University Eight and the College 1st Eight (1965–68). He also won the Prince Phillip Cup for the coxed VI at Henley in 1965. While in Oxford he started converting the original V-8 powered 1968 Morgan Plus 8 cars to left hand drive and importing them into the USA. On his return to San Francisco, USA he set up a dealership called ISIS Imports to import used Morgans. (Recently the dealership changed its name to Morgan Cars USA because of the Middle East terror organisation ISIS.) When his efforts to have Morgans exempt from safety and emissions regulations failed in 1971 he managed to pass EPA and NHTSA rules by converting the engine in the Morgan Plus 8 to run on propane. In 1973 he decided to import new cars, but these had to be considerably modified at Morgan’s Malvern, UK factory and the first did not arrive in the USA until 1976. Bill sent out cards saying ‘It’s high time that folks in these United States got back to some of the Truths about Serious Motoring. Like spirited performance, agile handling, simplicity and function. A car should work, not just look like it does. The Morgan is Back!’ The CEO of Morgan, Steve Morris wrote on the company Facebook page: ‘I am deeply saddened to hear the news about Bill Fink. I can remember Bill as a consistent and prominent Morgan character throughout my thirty-eight years at the Morgan Company. His passion, commitment and dedication to Morgan embodies the spirit of the marque. He was a friend to many here at the factory and will be sorely missed.’ Bill is survived by Judy his wife of forty years, stepdaughters Tcherek and Amelia Kamstra, grandchild Madison and siblings Jim Fink and Patricia Drew.

Barry John Goodchild (1959) died on 5 June 2021 aged 83. He was educated at Whitgift Grammar School, Haling Park, South Croydon and came up to Keble after two years National Service in Germany. Barry read Modern Languages (French), he was a member of the College Choir and of the Railway Society. At school he had developed a love for bus-spotting and as a result he decided on a career with London Transport (1962–89). His final post as Traffic and Public Relations Manager for the Wandle District London Buses Ltd made him traffic manager for all of South London. Barry then worked for a correspondence college as proof-reader of learning manuals (1990–95) before becoming a freelance editor/proof-reader. His wife Claudia had pre-deceased him and he had a stepson, Edwin. We were notified of his death by his step granddaughter Isabelle.

David George Green (1974) died on 29 May 2021 aged 64. He was educated at Bablake Grammar School. His wife writes: ‘David studied Engineering at Keble starting when he was only seventeen. He talked with affection and pride about his time at Oxford. He graduated with a First and received a cheque for £40 for ‘distinguished performance in University examinations’ despite not attending a single lecture! However, he enjoyed attending courses like Medieval Mathematics at the University’s Continuing Education Department. After leaving Oxford David worked for IBM at an exciting, pioneering time for computing although his career path could have been very different. In his second year he had to choose between doing a summer course in computing or one in surveying. As he didn’t fancy days outside on cold sites computing won the day. David also worked for Siemens–Nixdorf before becoming the chief software architect for Nationwide Building Society where he designed the software
Patrick Burnet Harris (1955) died on 26 December 2020 aged 86. Educated at St Albans School he spent his two years National Service as an Officer in the Army. He came up to Keble to read Law and played rugby for the College. Patrick was President of the Oxford Inter-Collegiate Christian Union (1957–58) and Secretary of the Bishop Jewel Society. He went to Clifton Theological College (1958) and was ordained Deacon (1960) and Priest (1961) being Curate of St Ebbe’s with St Peter’s in Oxford (1960–63). He became a Missionary with the South American Missionary Society (SAMS) in Argentina (1963–81) and was appointed Area Dean for Northern Argentina (1970) becoming Bishop (1973–80). He was engaged in establishing churches and social development especially amongst the Wichi people. Patrick returned to England as Rector of Kirkheaton, a large parish in Huddersfield and Assistant Bishop of Wakefield (1981–85). He was Assistant Bishop of Oxford and Secretary C of E of the Partnership World Mission (1986–88) during which he travelled extensively overseas in supporting churches in mission. In 1988 he was appointed Bishop of Southwell and remained in that post until he retired in 1999. He moved to Cheltenham and continued to be very active in the ministry including serving as an Honorary Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of Gloucester. The current Bishop of Southwell and Nottingham, the Rt Revd Paul Williams said on hearing the news of Bishop Patrick’s death “His transparent kindness and spiritual insight, rooted in Scripture and prayer, was an inspiration to many not only in his teaching and episcopal leadership but also in his daily life.” Patrick leaves his wife Valerie, daughter Rachel and sons Jonny and David.

Derek John Hook (1960) died on 13 March 2021 aged 80. His nieces Alison Guppy and Jennie Westoby wrote the following: ‘Derek Hook was born on 7 February 1941. He attended the King’s School, Worcester where he had a very knowledgeable history teacher who helped Derek and others to get into Keble College, Oxford. Derek talked about Oxford—about rugby and studying in the Bodleian Library. During the last part of his History degree he started to study economic history and found that it was economics he really enjoyed. After gaining his degree he went to London and started at a small accountancy firm Fuller, Wise, Fisher and Co and became a Chartered Accountant in 1968. The firm grew and was taken over by Touche Ross in 1979. He said he worked hard and long hours but was good at his job and very successful. When he left Touche Ross in 1996 some of his important clients left with him and he was able to continue to manage their accounts and later the accounts of their families for many years. Derek was well travelled. If you mentioned a far–off distant land he had probably visited it and could tell you the name of the ship, the year of the visit and what of importance was there. His knowledge of the history and geography of other lands was vast. At home he would swap the bar of the ship for the bar after rugby and cricket matches. He enjoyed staying with friends in Wales and going to Twickenham and Lords. Recently he was very touched when his friends from Worcester Cricket Club remembered his 80th birthday. He was hopeful that he might make it to a cricket match in Worcester later this year. Derek was very interested in the history and geography of this country. Although he didn’t drive he managed to visit many of the great houses around the country and tour lots of famous cities and historic sites. He was a keen supporter of the National Trust and English Heritage. The family have been touched by the messages from his friends and clients. He was a good friend to many over the years and a kind, caring and generous uncle. He will be greatly missed.’

John Denis Arthur Hutchings died on 16 May 2020 aged 90. His wife Ann wrote: ‘Denis was born in London in 1929 and was educated at St Paul’s School in Crowthorne. During his National Service he trained at Eaton Hall, Chester where he passed out as a junior Officer and served with the Royal Green Jackets in Somalia. He then took up his place at Keble to read Chemistry and his tutor was the famous Bob Williams of whom he had fond memories. Denis was President of the Mitre Club (1953), coxed the 1st Torpid (1953), rowed in the College VIII and was Captain (1954). He was awarded the Desborough Medal for services to the Boat Club. After Keble he went to Christ’s Hospital to teach Chemistry (1954–58) and during his time there he decided he had the calling to become a priest. He trained at Chichester Theological College and was ordained into the Church of England, the service taking place in St Paul’s Cathedral in 1960. He served for three years as Curate at St Pancras Church inner London. Denis continued to teach chemistry in several schools while also being a Non-stipendiary Priest. He was Chemistry Master and Assistant Chaplain at Denstone College (Blue Coat School), Staffordshire (1963–68), Head of Science at Sir John Cass and Red Coat C of E School (1968–79), Stepney and Head of Chemistry and Assistant Chaplain at Denstone College (1979–83). Denis became Vicar of St Boniface Church, St Budeaux, Devonport (1983–86) and Team Rector of Devonport St Boniface and St Phil (1986–93). Here he met and married at the age of 58 his wife Ann. He was Priest-in-Charge of Lydford and Brent Tor (1993–95). Ann looked after him for thirty-two years until he died at the age of ninety in May 2020. He lived a very full life and achieved much, he was a walker, climber, teacher, priest, much loved husband and adopted dad and grandad.’

Peter Jennings (1956) died on 18 January 2021 aged 83. He was educated at Manchester Grammar School and came up to Keble to read Classics but after one year changed to Theology. Peter was a member of the College Table Tennis, Lacrosse and Boat Clubs and a member of the University Table Tennis and Lacrosse Clubs. He also joined the University English Society, the Oxford John Wesley Society, the Oxford Union and the Student Christian Movement. Peter moved to Manchester University for a MA in Modern Languages (Semitic) (1960–63) and then to the Hartley Victoria Methodist College in Manchester. He was appointed a Methodist Minister in Swansea (1963–67) being ordained in 1965. Peter moved to London and was Tutor and Warden of the Youth Centre for Social–Community Studies in Stepney (1967–74). He became General Secretary of the Council of Christians and Jews and also Consultant to the World Council of Churches and the British Council of Churches on interfaith relations (1974–81). Peter served as a Superintendent in the Methodist Church for eleven years until he resigned in 1993. He was reinstated in 1997 and in 2006 transferred into Welsh language work as a retired minister in the Cymru District in Dyffryn Conway Circuit of the Methodist Church. We were notified of his death by his son Nic. Peter had married Cynthia Leicester in 1963.

John Robert Johnson (Bob) (1943) died on 11 March 2021 aged 95. His son Simon and daughter Elizabeth wrote the following: ‘Bob was born in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, USA on 16 May 1925. The Johnson family had emigrated from Preston to escape the depression after the First World War. His mother, also from Preston, later joined her future husband’s family in Pawtucket where they married. Having crossed the Atlantic several times for visits home the family decided to return to England and settled in Blackpool. Travelling on the White Star Line created Bob’s love of travel and sailing. After leaving St Joseph’s College in Blackpool he worked for Agriculture and Fisheries in Fleetwood and joined the Air Training Corps. He went up to Keble as an RAF Probationer to read History. He was inspired greatly by the lectures of A J P Taylor. Following morning lectures, he trained with the University Air Squadron. After six months he was posted to Winnipeg in Canada for pilot and navigation training. As his training came to an end so did WWII so he didn’t see active service. After demob, financial necessities meant that he was unable to return to Oxford. He joined the District Bank and worked on the Inspection Team, in the Staff Department and in 1969 became a Bank Manager for the newly created National Westminster Bank. He ended his career as the NatWest Bank Pensions Welfare Officer for the North of England. He married Mollie in 1954 and they had three children, Elizabeth, Simon and Damian. In 1978 Simon followed Bob to Keble to study Medicine. Bob and Mollie were very involved in the lives of many Franciscan priests and friars from Assisi and worldwide. Bob was appreciated by all for his kindness, gentleness and wisdom. He continued to live and travel independently after the death of Mollie in 1999. He died at home after a short illness, age 95. Bob requested that we all wore bright colours at the funeral and that it should be a celebration of faith, hope and love. A wonderful life lived to the full.’

David John Jordan (1956) died on 1 May 2020 aged 84. Educated at Reading School he came up to Keble to read Modern History after two years National Service. David was a member of the Oxford University Blue Ribbon Club (Oxford University Conservative Association) from 1956 to 1959 being its President in 1958. He joined Coopers Lybrand as an Articled Clerk and became a Chartered Accountant in 1964. He moved to Associated Industrial Consultants as a Management Consultant (1965–83). David then became a Partner in BDO Binder International Accountants (1983–98) during which he was appointed a Joint Inspector into HK Publishing Company by the Hong Kong Government Finance Section. Through the University of Hong Kong he gained a Diploma in Surveying from the College of Estate Management in Reading. He also attended the Keble Hong Kong Gala Dinner in December 1996. David was a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales (FCA), a Certified Public Accountant (USA) (CPA) and Certified Public Accountant (Malaysia) (CPA[M]). He is survived by his wife Wilma.

John William Charles Lacey (1949) died on 30 December 2020 aged 90. He was educated at the Erith County Grammar School near his home in Northumberland Heath, Kent and after his National Service in the Royal Navy (1948–49) came up to Keble to read Physics. He married Edna Winifred Burns whom he had met on the dance floor while still at school. Their daughter Erika Furcich writes: ‘The pair entered and won many dance competitions both together and in formation. It was a marriage made in heaven, together they reached for the stars and got to the moon.'
John was employed by the Royal Naval Scientific Service (1952–60) and in October 1960 John and Edna came to the USA through John's position as a Liaison Officer for the British government where he was involved with applying the very beginning of computer technology to encoding and decryption. During his assignment John was recruited by Control Data Corporation in the mid 1960s where he began a long career that featured many roles. He worked his way up to the role of Senior Vice President of Corporate Plans and Controls and by April 1977 he was named President of the newly established Control Data Education Company. He led their PLATO initiative and the Control Data Institute. John was renowned for his intellect, was well liked and respected for his insights. His long-time boss, President of Control Data, Bill Norris once said of John's strategic vision: "If John told me to jump off a building, I'd do it". Following his retirement from Control Data in 1985, John served on the boards of a number of well-known local companies and organizations including Graco Inc and the Guthrie Theatre. John leaves behind Edna his bride of sixty-nine years, their children Jonathan and Erika as well as three grandchildren, Katie, Alex and Justin and three great grandchildren, Isabella, James and Carter. John is already greatly missed by all who knew him.

Martin Frederick Losse (1968) died on 16 March 2020 aged 75. He studied at the University of Sussex from 1964 to 1968 and graduated with a BA Hons. Martin then came up to Keble for the Diploma in Education and was a member of the College Cricket Club. He did not enter the teaching profession but joined ICI Dyestuffs as a trainee Personnel Manager (1969–71). He transferred to ICI Pharmaceuticals (1971–89) and then to ICI TASC. He and his wife Angela lived in Cheadle Hume and Martin was a member of the Cheadle Hume Cricket Club and had been their President since December 2017. Martin passed away peacefully at home with his family around him. He had fought for over a year against the cancer that finally proved too much. He is survived by his wife Angela and their children Claire, Eleanor and Nick.

Desmond Edgar Fashole Luke (1954) died on 27 February 2021 aged 85. He was born in Freetown, British Sierra Leone. His father Sir Emile Fashole Luke was until 1973 the Speaker of the House of Representatives in Sierra Leone. Desmond was educated at the Prince of Wales School in Freetown and then at King's College, Taunton in England. He came up to Keble to read PPE and stayed for a further year to study West African medieval history. He was a member of the College Athletics Team, the 1954 University Freshers' Athletic Team gaining the high jump record and the University Athletics Team from 1955 to 1958 winning the long jump in 1956. He continued his studies at Magdalene College, Cambridge taking the MA in Law and becoming a Barrister at Lincoln's Inn, London in 1962. Desmond returned to Sierra Leone and set up his own law chambers in Freetown. In 1969 he was appointed Ambassador to West Germany (1969–73) and also to France (1971–73) and the European Economic Community (1971–73). Back in Sierra Leone he became Foreign Minister but resigned two years later (1973–75) returning to government as Minister for Health (1977–78). He left the government but remained in Parliament until 1983. Desmond later set up the National Unity Movement (NUM) to advocate constitutional reforms and was part of the 1991 constitutional review commission. Under the NUM banner he contested and lost the 1996 elections. The following year the army staged a coup and set up the Armed Forces Ruling Council (AFRC). Desmond worked with Nigerian, British and other foreign diplomats to try and persuade the military junta to hand back power to the elected government. This failed and he had to flee to Guinea to join his exiled government. The military junta were unseated with the help of Nigerian forces in February 1998 and the restored civilian government appointed Desmond as Chief Justice in 1998 from which he retired in 2002. He lived in his Spur Loop home until he died and is survived by his wife Monica.

Brian John Lymberry OBE (1965) died on 8 August 2018 aged 71. Educated at Alun Grammar School in Mold, Flintshire, North Wales he came up to Keble to read History. After graduation he joined Voluntary Service Overseas (VSO) and taught in a school in Nigeria. On his return home he served on VSO interview panels. In 1971 Brian became the Executive Secretary for the Prince of Wales Committee in Bangor. Four years later he married Sue Sheratt whom he met while she was training to be a teacher in Bangor. They moved to Cardiff and had two children, Mathew and Jessica. He was made Director of the Prince of Wales Committee which campaigned to conserve the Welsh countryside. On several occasions he travelled with Prince Charles across Wales by helicopter and in 1981 Brian and his wife were invited to the Prince's wedding. He moved to Lewisham in southeast London as Deputy Director of the Civic Trust (1983–87) and then Executive Director of Richard Branson's UK 2000 Trust whose remit was to clean up Britain before the millennium (1987–90). Although diagnosed with Parkinson's disease at age 44 he became Director of the Chartered Society of Designers (1990–98). Despite his illness in 2002 he became Chair of the new Primary Care Trust for Lewisham and with a £13.3 million budget launched a project to build a centre offering social and healthcare for children and teenagers. Twenty-three disciplinary teams were eventually based at the Kaleidoscope Centre which opened in 2007 and Brian was appointed OBE for his work at the Trust and service to the people of Lewisham. He had a passion for good food and wine, he was especially fond of ice cream and ensured that his trips to... medical appointments in central London included detours to a Soho patisserie. To relax Brian had joined dance classes for those living with Parkinson's and a reading–cum–supper club. In accordance with his wishes his brain was donated for research into Parkinson's. He is survived by his son Mathew, daughter Jessica and grandsons, Ryan, Evan and Xander.

Sean Patrick McGinley (1988)

was killed aged 55 on 3 June 2021 in an Interstate 79 crash in Braxton County, West Virginia. He gained a BA in History and Government at Oberlin College, Ohio, USA in 1987 and then came to Keble to read Jurisprudence. He rowed and played cricket and basketball for the College. After graduation he returned to the States and was a Law Clerk to the Hon Thomas B Miller, C J, West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals (Charleston, West Virginia) (1990–93) and then Law Clerk to the Hon Charles Haden, C J, District Court for Southern District of West Virginia (1994–95). Sean became a Partner in DiTrapano, Barrett and DiPiero, a law firm in Charleston, West Virginia as a trial and appellate lawyer. He represented clients in personal injury cases, commercial and business litigation and class actions. He also served as legal counsel to the news outlets including the Charleston Gazette–Mail and Media companies on cases regarding the First Amendment and other issues. Sean was travelling back to Charleston from a hearing in Morgantown when he was killed. His law partner Tim DiPiero wrote: ‘Sean was a brilliant lawyer, just amazingly talented. He had a keen sense of right and wrong and seeking justice.’ Doug Reynolds managing partner of HD Media which publishes the Gazette–Mail wrote: ‘His long association with the Charleston Gazette–Mail was based not only on his great skill as a lawyer but on the friendship he formed with all those with whom he worked, not only the leadership of the company but also many of our journalists now and over the years.’ Sean is survived by his wife Ana G Marino and two sons, Liam Patrick and Colin Sean.

John Brian Byford Mills (1951)

died on 11 January 2021 aged 89. His daughter Elspeth Rendell sent the following: ‘Brian, the grandson of Will Thorne MP and a founder of the GMB Union, remembered as a young child being taken by his grandfather to meet Winston Churchill. Churchill patted him on the head and said: “If he takes after his grandfather he’ll do very well.” Educated at the Royal Liberty School, Romford Brian won a scholarship to read Engineering Science at Keble.’ … ‘A National Service accident involving live ammunition caused him lifelong impaired hearing which meant he was not shipped to Korea and more important could start at Keble. Brian loved his time at Keble and Oxford is where he met his wife Morag. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in 2017. He started rowing at Keble, becoming a skilled oarsman, developing a lifelong passion for the sport (and a back problem to go with it!). He rowed in the 1st Eight for Torpids and Summer Eights in 1953. He was Treasurer of the Keble Boat Club and Secretary for the Mitre Club. While at Keble he bought and rebuilt an old London taxi (always the engineer—Meccano was involved!). He spent the summer driving across Europe and remembered sleeping on the beach in front of the Casino at Monte Carlo. Brian’s engineering degree led to him to travel the globe: he started in the nuclear industry designing some of the first Nuclear Power stations including Hunterston B. He relocated to South Africa in 1959 with GEC and then transferred into the oil and gas industry, helping to construct the Fulmar rig in Hamburg and moving to the North Sea on its relocation. Brian had a lifelong love of boats, enjoyed sailing in the Solent, the Channel Islands and France. He was a truly renaissance man who could turn his hand to anything. In retirement he continued sailing, visiting France, developed his love of painting, learned new IT skills and read prodigioulsly. He loved attending Henley Royal Regatta. Ironically Brian still had nightmares about when during his National Service he was in charge of a large military convoy which got stuck on a narrow bridge just outside Henley slap–bang in the middle of Regatta week bringing it to a grid–locked standstill. Brian had a keen wit with a wealth of stories and one–liners. Stories included meeting people as diverse as President Nixon, Ingrid Bergman, Mohammed Ali and David Stirling (founder of the SAS). Whilst working in the South African mines Brian saved a man’s life by pulling him to safety as he fell down the mine shaft. He promised Brian he would visit Stirling (founder of the SAS). John Bernard Muddiman (1965) died on 5 December 2020 aged 73. Educated at King Edward VII School in Southampton he came up to Keble as an Open Scholar in Classics and Theology. John was Treasurer of the JCR (1967–68). He moved to Selwyn College, Cambridge for two years taking Part Three of the Theology Tripos (1971) and also attending Westcott House (1969) being ordained Deacon (1972) and Priest (1973). Having returned to Oxford he was Honorary Curate of St Giles (1972–83) and Hastings Rashdall Research Fellow and Assistant Chaplain at New College (1972–76) completing a DPhil in 1976. He moved to St Stephens House as Tutor (1972) and Priest (1973). the first Fellow of Mansfield to be either Assessor or Proctor since the College became a college within the University. He was also Co-director of the Centre for Environment, Ethics and Society (1992–96), Chair of the Church of England’s Theological Education and Training Committee (1995–2002) and a member of the Anglican–Roman Catholic International Commission (1991–2005). He published a commentary on Ephesians and with Professor Barton edited the monumental 1.5 million word Oxford Bible Commentary. He had married in 1976 and they had two sons Joseph and Thomas. For many years John had assisted the Vicar of Littlemore, Revd Dr David Nicholls, and when he died John took on responsibility of the parish’s services and pastoral care despite his College and University duties. A divorcee, in 2010 he married David’s widow Gillian but tragically she died from aggressive cancer shortly after their honeymoon. John retired in 2012 to Bingham to be near his son Joe. He looked after his grandchildren several days each week and enjoyed cooking Sunday lunch with them.

Henry Irwine Parker (1947) died in November 2018 aged 92. He was educated at Birkenhead School and was called up in 1944 for service in the Royal Air Force. He was sent to the School of Oriental and African Studies for two years to learn Japanese and then joined the occupation forces in Japan as an Interpreter (1946–47). On demobilisation Henry came up to Keble to read Modern Languages (German). He played rugby for the College (1947–51) and was a member of the University Athletics Club gaining a Blue in 1949/50 and 1950/51. He was also in the joint Oxford and Cambridge Team against Princeton and Cornell in 1950. Henry remained at Keble for the Diploma in Education and then took up an appointment at Denstone College teaching French and German until he retired (1951–86). During his time at Denstone he had been a Housemaster, Master in charge of Athletics, Cross-Country and Orienteering and a Wing Commander in charge of the RAF Section of the Combined Cadet Force. Henry and his wife Esther had three children Christopher John, Jillian Anne and Alison Julie. It was Alison who recently notified us of her father’s death in November 2018.

Andrew William Pengelly (1961) died on 25 March 2021 aged 78. His daughter, Victoria FitzGerald (1997), wrote: ‘Born in Winchester in 1942, Andrew grew up in Kent, where his father was appointed Headmaster at Bethany—an independent boys’ school in Goudhurst. Although his father was a dedicated Christian and mild-mannered man, there can be little doubt his patience was, on occasion, sorely pressed by some of Andrew’s more spirited schoolboy antics. Coming up to Keble in 1961 from The King’s School, Canterbury, Andrew’s ability as an oarsman was already clear. Initially reading Chemistry before transferring to Medicine, he loved his time at Oxford. He served as Secretary to the Boat Club, rowed at bow for Isis and the Keble 1st VIII and was an enthusiastic member of Vincent’s Club. While recollections may vary as to the exact number of hours he put into his academic work, his commitment to the College, and to those who were to become his lifelong friends, was unequivocal. His professional career began at the Middlesex Hospital in London and spanned four decades, including a year working as a medical officer in Peshawar. Training under the eminent urologist Richard Turner-Warwick CBE, he took up his first Consultant post in Reading, where he would go on to establish the new Department of Urology. Whether acting in his capacity as Chairman for the Division of Surgery, or as the first Executive Medical Director for the Royal Berkshire NHS Trust, his emotional intelligence and sense of compassion were well-recognised. When faced with delivering difficult news, the truth would always out: he gave great thought to considering not only the right language, but also its delivery; to him, silence was as powerful as the words that punctuated it. But, where appropriate, wit was never far away. His letters to referring doctors were rarely dull—thirty years on, many are still remembered with a wry smile by his colleagues. With a long-time resolution to retire by the age of 60, Andrew embraced retirement with the same energy he had put into his work. After running the London marathon at 62, Andrew spent an increasing amount of time pursuing his love of art, gaining a Fine Art degree from Winchester. Continuing to maintain close ties to Bethany School, he served as Chairman of the Board of Governors for several years. To his ten grandchildren, he was Herculean. Whether cheerfully chopping up fallen trees in the garden, or vaporising apples with small explosive charges that sat happily amongst the poetry in the many bookshelves at home, life was never dull. Most recently, Andrew’s work as Chairman of the Douglas Price Society saw him enthusiastically returning to Keble. A gifted speaker, he thrived at the annual dinners, relishing the opportunity to don his maroon velvet jacket and speak with gusto at his much-loved Hall, to the many alumni with whom he remained close. Endlessly curious, and relentlessly kind to the end, Andrew Pengelly died at home on 25 March 2021 after a short illness. We miss him.’

David John Howard Penwarden (1953) died on 8 February 2021 aged 88. Educated at Taunton School he came up to Keble to read PPE after two years National Service as an Officer in the Army. David rowed in the College 2nd VIII and was a member of Mitre Club and Chairman of the Ball Committee. He was President of the University Liberal Club in 1955 and was proud of making it the largest University political party, a feat he attributed to holding all his meetings in the women’s colleges. He was also on the Library Committee of the Oxford Union (1955–56). While still an undergraduate he stood unsuccessfully as a Liberal Candidate in the 1955 General Election in West Ham North. David was a Teacher in West Ham (1956–58) before joining...
Peter Merchant Ltd as a Contract Manager (1958–63). He became General Manager of Little Chef (1963–65). In 1960 he had been elected as a Liberal Councillor for the County Borough of West Ham and in 1961 he had moved with his wife and young children to Berkshire where he was elected to Reading Borough Council. He stood unsuccessfully in a by-election for the Deptford constituency (1963). David joined the Management Division of Charter Restaurants (1965–67) then moved to Hotel and Catering ITB (1967–69) before becoming Director of Personnel for the Guardian and Manchester Evening News Ltd (1969–77). In the 1974 February and October General Elections he stood unsuccessfully for the South Bedfordshire Constituency. He became an Assistant Director Relations Training at Ashridge Management College (1978–80). He served on the Liberal Party General Election Committee and was Chair of the Candidates Selection Committee for both the Westminster and European Parliament (1978–80) and stood unsuccessfully for Hemel Hempstead in the 1979 General Election. David and his wife Lydia moved to Oxford in 1980 and he joined the ‘Ecole D’Affaires de Paris’ retiring as Director in 1992. In 2000 he became a councillor for Oxford East and for several years was President of the Local Party. We were notified of his death by his son Charles.

Blaine Pike (2005)
died on 29 May 2021 aged 33. Educated at the City of Sunderland College he came up to Keble to read Modern Languages (French and German). Blaine joined Fishburn Hedges as a Graduate Consultant (advertising) (2010–12) and then moved to TMW Agency as a Communities Manager (French/German working in Qatar and Singapore). In 2018 he founded the Oxford Languages Company providing GCSE language tuition and translation.

Ally Potter (Keble 2005) wrote remembering her friend: ‘At 16 Blaine became a star of the small screen by becoming a student contestant on That’ll Teach ‘Em a Channel 4 documentary in which modern day teenagers endured the trials of 1950s schooling. Blaine frequently described his days among the “Dreaming Spires” as the best of his life, offering much personal growth and countless enriching experiences. Many were beyond the lecture hall, such as coxing KCBC’s Women’s 1st VIII in Hilary Term’s Torpids Regatta. In vacations he always found time to head back to Sunderland taking on a few shifts at Poundland to bolster next term’s spending pot in Keble bar. His optimism and confidence helped him to make what must have been hundreds of lifelong friendships, stemming from the early days in Hayward Quad’s H4 block to the various LGBTQ societies across colleges. Blaine made everyone feel at ease with his convivial attitude and open mind. That said, a wry wit was always brewing just below the surface, and you felt like the chosen one when invited to see it in action. The laughter was often uncontrollable, and the in-jokes were elaborate. He will be missed especially by those he was closest to at Keble, his loving family in Sunderland and his friends around the world. The Eurovision Song Contest has also lost a superfan. Thank you Blaine for sharing your bright light with all who had the pleasure of knowing you.’

Austin John Pontin (1952)
died on 12 April 2020 aged 87. He was educated at the City of Oxford High School for Boys and a school and life-long friend Glyn Frewer together with John’s wife Rosalind sent the following tribute: ‘I remember while walking across fields with John how he clinked as he went carrying tubes in his pockets ready for interesting insects he found. Before leaving school to do his National Service in the RAF he had already won a place at Keble to read Zoology. After graduating he remained at Keble for a DPhil on ants and their nesting spacing. There followed a notable career as an outstanding expert on British ants. Based at Bedford College, University of London (1959–63) and then Royal Holloway College (1963–92) his studies and fieldwork distinguished him as one of the country’s leading entomologists. His book Ants of Surrey published in 2005 remains a myrmecologist’s ‘bible’. He had a great interest in conservation, working with the Surrey Wild Life Trust, especially on heathland and the trial reintroduction of the ant Formica rufibarbis. His ant studies also led to an interest in competition resulting in his earlier book Competition and Coexistence of Species. The insight he gained from his studies was offered to students of all ages with warmth and enthusiasm, their appreciation evidenced by the tributes received after his death—and indeed before. He never lost his enthusiasm for nature nor his pleasure in sharing that and his knowledge with others. He was happily married to Rosalind for sixty years with children Katherine, Carol and Mark and grandchildren, one or two of whom share his interest in entomology.’

Giles Timothy Severin (Watkins) (1959) died on 18 December 2020 aged 80. Giles Timothy Watkins (later Severin) was born in Assam, India the son of an English tea planter. He was sent at the age of seven to board at Tonbridge School and came up to Keble as a Geography Scholar. He gained a Half Blue for ice hockey 1961/62 and while still an undergraduate he sought to recreate his first ancient journey retracing on motorbike Marco Polo’s thirteenth-century journey into Asia. After graduation he joined De La Rue International. Six years later he followed in the footsteps of Spanish conquistadors and others sailing down the Mississippi river, but it was his decision to try to follow in the footsteps of St Brendan and prove that the sixth-century Irish Saint could have crossed the Atlantic in a leather-bound boat and reached the Americas 900 years before Columbus that caught the public imagination. On 17 May 1976 Severin and his three fellow crew men led by sailing master George Maloney rowed out of Brandon Creek on the Robert James Shapperd (1970) died on 26 March 2021 aged 68. He was educated at Queen Elizabeth’s Hospital, Bristol and came up to Keble to read History. He held various positions with Southern Electric for twenty-two years. We were notified of his death by his solicitors.

John Simpson (1950) died on 10 January 2021 aged 90. Educated at the Royal Grammar School in Lancaster he came up to Keble after two years National Service. John read Classics for a year and changed to Theology. He played football for the College and was Captain (1953–54). He married Iris Buckley in 1954 and stayed on at Keble to take the Diploma in Education (1955). John was appointed an Assistant Master at Taunton School in Southampton. He was Librarian and involved in both School and County Association Football. In 1969 Taunton School became a Sixth Form College for boys and was renamed Richard Taunton College which began admitting girls in 1978. After thirty years of teaching he retired as Head of Latin and Religious Studies. John and his wife Iris had two daughters Janet Elisabeth and Nicola Jane. Janet wrote: ‘He had always maintained contact with the College and read the regular newsletters and magazines with interest.’

Roy James (Jim) Smith (1951) died on 17 June 2021 aged 88. His wife Jennifer wrote: ‘RJ, Jim was born 16 November 1932 in Wallington. Following his 11+ he moved to New Cross and attended Haberdashers’ Askes where he enjoyed rugby and so continued playing for the Old Askeans when he left school. He was the first in his family to gain a place at university, reading Engineering at Keble. He rowed in the Torpids Bumps races, enjoyed the amateur dramatics and at 21 became a Freeman of the City of London by patrimony. After two years work in London his National Service was spent building the runway on Christmas Island for Operation Grapple (a set of four series of British nuclear weapons tests). His legacy includes the construction of the Erith Sewage Works, a quay wall in Port Sudan, main drainage in Khartoum, the pumping station on the Blue Nile, a dam in Sierra Leone, the Woolwich Ferry Terminals, Tiverton bridge and reconstructing the ancient Bideford bridge when it collapsed. An entrepreneur, he then established Molesmith Tunnels Ltd in 1973. His mini tunnels are said to be found beneath every road, river and railway from Oxfordshire to Devon but also in South Wales, Colchester and Frankfurt Airport. An enthusiastic sailor, he sailed to the Channel Islands, through France to the Mediterranean and to the Netherlands. Upon retirement, it took him eight years to fit out his 45’ steel hull, Coldfeet, which he then sailed round the South Coast. His hobbies included glass blowing, life painting, glass engraving, stained glass, clay modelling, carpentry and wine making. He travelled widely on holidays, criss-crossing the globe many times. RJ was a great character who achieved so much as he relished the adventure of life. He is sadly missed by his widow, Jennifer, two sons, Michael and Simon, a daughter, Rosalind and five grandsons.’

Victoria Helen Smith (née Metcalf) (1988) died on 6 April 2021 aged 50. Educated at Dayncourt School she came up to Keble to read Law. Vic was a member of the College Boat Club, Captain of the Womens’ Rugby Team and sang in the College Choir. She was also a member of the University Athletics Club, the Rugby Union Football Club, the University French Society, the University Film Foundation and the Oxford Classical Chorus. After qualifying as a Solicitor she worked for Norwich Union plc as a Commercial Property Solicitor. Vic and her husband Peter had three children, Joseph, Tabitha and Imogen. The family sent this dedication to her memory: ‘This is in memory of our wonderful Vic. We lost her on 6 April 2021 and she is much missed by us all. She was the best Wife and Mum we could have wished for. Vic was beautiful, kind and touched all our lives. We are heartbroken by her loss. We are raising donations for MIND for those who wish to contribute and we thank you for these. In due course we plan an event in memory of Vic to raise awareness and further funds for MIND. Vic was special and made the world a better place for those around her. We will always love her and always miss her. Pete, Joe, Tabitha and Immy x.’
died on 3 March 2021 aged 90. He was educated at Queen Mary's Grammar School in Walsall and came up to Keble to read Modern History after two years National Service. He was a member of the College Hockey Club, the Rackets Club, the Lawn Tennis VI and the Athletics and Cross-country Club. He was also a member of the University Cross-country Club and ran for their Tortoises Team (1952–54). Paul joined the Goodyear Tyre and Rubber Company Ltd as a Sales Representative (1954–63), became Sales Manager for Tyretreads in Manchester and then Midland General Manager of Tyre Distribution and Retail in 1983 until he retired in 1991. Paul emailed the College in 2018 to say that he was now disabled due to a bad fall two years before and that his wife Sylvia had died. He had a stepson Robert and a granddaughter Jennifer who notified us of his death.

Robert Bocking Stevens (1952) died on 30 January 2021 aged 87. Born in Leicester in 1933, and educated at Oakham School, Robert Stevens first came to Oxford to read Law at Keble as an undergraduate, matriculating in 1952. He was called to the bar by Gray's Inn, but decided to go to the US in 1956, to take a teaching position at the Northwestern University Law School. After completing a master of laws degree at Yale University, Stevens returned to England to become a law tutor at Keble and to launch a practice as a barrister. He was lured back to the US in 1960 by Yale Law School, where he ultimately became Professor of Law. From Yale he went on to become Provost of Tulane University and then President of Haverford College from 1978 to 1987 where he helped guide the College through its transition to coeducation. In 1987 he became Chancellor of the University of California in Santa Cruz. Keble awarded Professor Stevens an Honorary Fellowship in recognition of his contribution to the study of Law. He held Honorary degrees from the Universities of Pennsylvania, Villanova, Haverford College and the New York Law School, and was also an Honorary Fellow of Oxford University's Centre for Socio-Legal Studies. In addition to this he attained a variety of visiting appointments, most notably at the University of Texas, at Stanford University and at the London School of Economics, as well as serving on a variety of significant bodies in the United States, including as Chair of the Research Committee of the American Bar Foundation. Professor Stevens’ written contribution to the field of law was extensive. He was an expert in Constitutional Law, with a particular interest in the changing role of the judiciary over the second half of the twentieth century. He brought an objective and refreshingly sceptical eye to bear on the workings of the English legal system, including in his books The Independence of the Judiciary (1992) and The English Judges (2002), both based on meticulous historical and archival research, and both benefiting from the breadth and length of his American experience. Robert Stevens was made Master of Pembroke College in 1993, and continued as Head of House until 2001. He led the College at what was a challenging time for higher education in general, and for Pembroke in particular financially. His Master’s Notes throughout his eight-year tenure make constant and non-partisan reference to governmental changes to Higher Education Funding, and specifically to the significant reduction in College Fees to support the tutorial system. He is survived by his wife, Kathie, three children, and two grandchildren.

Brian Peter Symes (1972) died on 6 May 2021 aged 67. He was educated at Bishop Wordsworth Grammar School in Salisbury and came up to Keble to read English. His sister emailed the College to say that her brother Brian had died in St Thomas's Hospital in London after being ill for about a month with a heart condition. His wife died several years ago and he leaves a daughter Janet.

Brian Taylor (1949) died on 25 March 2021 aged 91. Educated at Cheltenham Grammar School he came up to read Theology after two years National Service. He was appointed an Assistant Master at Wells House Preparatory School (1952–53) and then moved to Spalding Grammar School (1954–61). He trained for Holy Orders at Lincoln Theological College, was ordained Deacon 1957 and Priest 1958 being Curate of St John Baptist, Spalding and Chaplain at his school (1957–61). As an Associate Missionary with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel he was Principal of St Columba's School Miri, Sarawak (1962–65), Tutor and Chaplain of Batu Lintang College Kuching (1965–68) and then returned to the Home Staff of the Society. Brian was Vicar of St Gabriel's Leicester (1969–75), Rector of Guildford St Nicholas (1975–93) and also Chaplain to the Royal Surrey County Hospital (1975–1980), Diocesan Inspector of Schools (1975–1993), Commissary for the Bishop of Sabah (1977–1993) and Surrogate for marriage licenses (1989–1993). After the Church of England allowed the ordination of women in 1992 he was the first married Anglican Priest to join the Catholic Church via the ordinariate. He was received into the Catholic Church in 1993 and ordained Priest in 1994 for the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton being an Associate Priest in St Mary's Rydes Hill, Guildford (1996–1997). Brian was Priest in Charge of Bagshot (1997–98) and Priest in Charge of Sutton Park (1998–2016) where he instituted a Parish Pastoral Council, documented and redesigned displays of reliquaries and museum artifacts, arranged the purchase of a graveyard extension (2003–2004), redesigned and reordered the baptistery, raised funds for and built a church hall (2000–2009) and produced several local publications. From 2003 to 2016 he was also the Catholic Chaplain at Charterhouse. In 2015 he arranged for the funds from a Trust, of which he was a Director and was being wound up, to be transferred to Keble to help with the Digitising of the Regensburg died on 11 October 2019 aged 70. The following are extracts from his wife Elizabeth’s letter: ‘Geoff was born in Birmingham, a precious only child of devoutly Anglican parents.’ ‘He astonished both his parents and his teachers by receiving straight As in his A-level exams and announcing he wanted to go to university. Four years at the University College of North Wales, Bangor produced a degree in Biblical Studies followed by a teaching certificate. They also left Geoff with a love of Wales and an ability to sing hymns in Welsh with great gusto!’ He applied to the Inner London Education Authority and ‘was sent to a secondary school in South Hackney where he taught Religious Studies, joined the local Labour Party and took an active part in community life through Toc H House where he was lodging. It was there that he met his wife Elizabeth, a social worker. Feeling unhappy with his original field of study he enrolled as a mature student at Keble to read PPE.’ ‘Supply teaching in a variety of Hackney schools followed and then Geoff began a doctorate in the Department of War Studies at King’s College, London. From 1986 – 98 Geoff was employed by British Telecom, initially as a trainee and laterally as a manager, both of which roles equipped him very well for what was to be his dream job—that of a local councillor. From 2002 – 2018 he served as a borough councillor in Hackney and was elected Speaker (civic mayor) in 2004. From 2014 to 2017 he was Cabinet member for finance, playing a crucial role in managing the Council’s budget. He represented Hackney on the planning committee for the Olympic Park and was tremendously proud of the transformation of an unbeautiful area of semi-industrial land into a green and pleasant amenity.’ ‘He wrote many essays on biblical subjects, which he called his “Unpreach-able Sermons”, produced a series of dramatic Easter monologues and papers on the case for Scotland remaining in the Union, Britain remaining in Europe and the UK becoming truly federal. In 2018 Geoff resigned from the council and other activities having been diagnosed with multiple myeloma. He died in October 2019 at the age of 70 and is survived by his wife Elizabeth. At his funeral Hackney’s mayor, Phil Glanville described him as “a social democrat, a pro-European, a believer in debate, compromise, the power of politics to do good and most of all an honest and dedicated public servant who gave his all to causes and the borough he loved”. Geoff would have been amazed and touched by such a tribute.’

Timothy Michael Warman (1960)
died on 11 May 2021 aged 79. He was educated at Queen Elizabeth Grammar School, Wakefield and came up to Keble to read Chemistry. Timothy was a member of the College Cross-country Team which won Cuppers in 1964 and he was the College Representative for the Oxford University Humanist Group. He remained at Keble for a BSc in Chemistry and then joined the Plant Protection Chemistry Section of the East Malling Research Station as an Assistant Experimental Officer. Timothy married Rosemary June Dolling in 1968. We were notified of his death by one of his brothers, Charles Warman (Keble 1962).

David Reginald Wasp (1960)
died on 19 April 2021 aged 80. His daughter Lucy wrote: ‘A longed for only child of Mary and Reginald Wasp, David’s passion for learning and education began at King Edward VI Grammar School in Southampton. He excelled at history but loved sport too, playing cricket, squash, tennis, football and golf. He became a fervent supporter of Southampton football club, 2the Saints”, and started attending matches with school and life-long friend and fellow Keble alumnus Chris Wood. This tradition would continue throughout his life. David was the first member of his family to go to university and he read History at Keble from 1960 – 63. This was followed by the Diploma in Education in 1964. He was also a BP Education Fellow in Trinity Term 1983. He was a long-standing member of the Keble Association and a frequent visitor to Keble events, most recently he attended the Summer Dinner in 2017. He wore his Keble College scarf with pride and talked of his time there as the “best years of his life”. David went on to have a successful career in teaching, teacher training and education consultancy. This began in London where he was also able to indulge another life-long passion in theatre. His teaching career began at Eltham Green Comprehensive School in 1964, where he worked alongside his dear friend and Keble alumnus, Rony Colenso. He then taught at Thomas Carlton Comprehensive school in Peckham (1973 – 81). He moved into teacher training and then became an Ofsted Inspector. In 2000 David was at the forefront of ‘Teach-first’ inspiring and mentoring graduates making the transition into education. A Teach-first colleague said: “David was a very special man—a guiding light—and an inspiration to us all. His impact on thousands of teachers and their pupils cannot be measured, and his legacy will live on for many generations to come”. David was an exceptionally special father to three children, Lucy, Daniel and Emily and grandfather to five grandchildren Molly, Jacob, Nancy, Kit and Thomas. His love, nurture and playfulness were boundless. He was a treasured friend to many to whom he showed un-floundering appreciation, loyalty and love. He is greatly missed.’

David Theodore Welch (1949)
died on 17 September 2020 aged 90. His son, Jonathan Welch (1984), wrote: ‘David Welch (Keble 1949) sadly passed away on 17 September 2020, following an episode of heart failure, brought on, in part, by the loss of his son, Andrew (also Keble, 1981), a few months earlier. There is no question that this loss affected him very deeply. David was born on 15 June 1930, one of a surprise package of triplets. His parents were expecting twins, the doctor having to break the news to his mother: “I’m sorry Mrs Welch, there’s one more.” The three of them, David, Dickie and Philip, plus their elder brother Clifford, all had haemophilia.
David’s unfussy and unself-pitying temperament no doubt contributed to the equanimity with which he dealt with this life-long and often frightening condition. He certainly knew tragedy, losing his father at 18, and Dickie at 39, but again, though these losses went very deep, he wore them quietly. Almost all of the many many testimonials received by the family since he passed away have spoken of his gentleness, the fact that he was both a gentleman, and a gentle man. Behind this gentleness there was also a determined urge to get involved and do good, always without any need for public acknowledgement. Beyond his working life (mostly as a Chartered Secretary for Kodak), he was a stalwart of the Keble Association, helping raise funds for his Oxford alma mater, where he had spent a cheerful three years as a student cycling the lanes of Oxfordshire and gaining a rather nonchalant third class degree—something he was always happy to mock himself for. He gave decades of service to Mill Hill through his chairmanship of the Mill Hill Preservation society. Later he joined the team of unpaid tour-guides at the British Museum, something he continued right up to 2020. A family-oriented man, he had a genial, twinkly nature—he had a firm sense of the ridiculous, and liked to laugh and make people laugh. As his devotion to P G Wodehouse attests, he liked a well turned phrase, and he was good at deploying them. On their very first meeting, at a dance in a hotel in Brixham, the first words he ever spoke to his future wife Philippa were: “I hope we’re not presuming too much, but would you care to have this dance.”—a classic David moment: refined, charming and infused with smiling self-deprecation. It clearly worked—it lead to sixty-one years of a blissfully happy marriage to Philippa, building a life that embraced fun and adventure: years of boating on the Thames on their beloved narrowboat, far-flung cruises, dog-walking. Between them they have made the template of what a devoted partnership should be. The manner of his passing was all that a man of his probity and gentleness might deserve—peaceful, without pain, with Philippa and his son Jonathan beside him. All his loved ones also take comfort from their belief that he can now be reunited with his beloved Andrew.’

Richard Malcolm Wilson (1963) died on 13 August 2020 aged 79. His wife Kate provided most of the following. Richard was born in Beverley, Yorkshire and was educated at Pocklington School. After taking a degree at Selwyn College, Cambridge he came to Keble for the Diploma in Education. He taught in the Faculty of Arabic and Islamic Studies in the University of Ahmadu Bello, Nigeria as a Lecturer in English (1964–66). While there he first became interested in African writing in English and French and founded and edited the Kano Studies a faculty journal of the humanities. From 1966 to 1967 Richard was a British Council Lecturer in English at the University of Baghdad where he became interested in Arabic literature. He then held a Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship at Northwestern University in the USA before accepting an appointment as an Instructor in English. During the Spring Quarter of 1968 he taught the English Department’s first course on African literature, The Contemporary African Novel. Over the next three years Richard continued to teach this course as well as an additional course called Studies in Contemporary African Literature. At the same time he served on the Advisory Committee for Northwestern’s Program of African Studies. He worked with the Program’s Publications Committee to create a new periodical in which students and faculty members associated with the program could publish. Richard also published A Working Index to African Literature (1970) and the paper ‘Themes and the Relevance of African Literature’ (1970) in which he detailed his experiences of teaching African Literature at Northwestern especially given the political climate at the time. Richard was also interested in seventeenth-century English poets and published literary articles analysing their work. He worked on a short film about the poet Andrew Marvell and wrote poetry and a novel The Gilded Fly. On his return to the UK, he was a Lecturer at York University and then in 1974 he became a Staff Tutor for the Open University in Arts and Crafts Literature in the Modern World. Richard was a Visiting Fellow at

Alain Norman Woodrow (1958) died on 10 September 2020 aged 82. The following is taken mainly from a longer obituary sent by John Lee a friend and contemporary at Keble: Alain was born into an Anglo-French family and was educated at Bushey Grammar School. During his two years National Service in the Royal Navy he learnt Russian and came up to Keble to read Modern Languages (French and Russian). After graduation Alain, who was a staunch progressive ecumenical catholic, entered the Paris seminary of Saint Sulpice to prepare himself for the priesthood.
However, he developed a preference for journalism and embarked on a bilingual writing career that was to inform and amuse readers on both sides of the Channel for the next forty years. From 1967 to 1974 he was writing articles in French for the fortnightly magazine Les Informations Catholiques Internationales and then in 1968 he wrote his first article for the English Catholic weekly The Tablet on ‘Revolution at the Sorbonne’. His analysis of the “events of May” in the 8 June 1968 edition began a regular series of reports, commentaries and book reviews in English in The Tablet on religious and secular issues in France and Europe that lasted until 2011. Also, in 1974 Le Monde had selected him as their Chief Correspondent on Religion, a position he held until 1985 when he moved to the Paul Gueron Wright (1967) died on 6 June 2020 aged 71. Rob Stuart, a friend and one of his executors sent the following obituary: ‘An ex-pupil of King Henry VIII School in Coventry Paul went on to study Law at Keble in 1967. After a period of further study in Guildford he took articles at Band Hatton in Coventry, where he moved through the ranks to become practice partner. He stayed at band Hatton his entire working life before retiring in January 2009 to spend more time with his recently widowed father. Paul was a devoted son to his disabled Mum Beryl and his father Wally and a much-loved Godparent and friend to many. He was an avid supporter of Coventry City Football Club, Warwickshire County Cricket Club, an excellent School Governor at his boyhood school and a Freeman of the City of Coventry. He bravely fought a long illness before sadly it beat him in June 2020. He will be greatly missed.’

NEWS OF ALUMNI

1957 John Sharp had a book published this May by Wiley entitled Underwater Inspection and Repair for Offshore Structures with co-author Gerhard Ersdal. A previous book entitled Ageing and Life Extension of Offshore Structures was published in 1992 also by Wiley, with co-authors Gerhard Ersdal and Alex Stacey.

1959 Dr Peter Montford’s Maecenas published by Routledge in 2019 is a biography of Augustus’ great supporter, the patron of Virgil, Horace and Propertius.

1963 Michael Henderson retired in May 2019 as the Liberal Democrat Councillor of Swale Borough Council after twenty-two years of service. He was given the award of Honorary Alderman. Michael was made ‘Freeman of Faversham Town’ in May 2020 for services to the town—an award which has only been given to approximately ten citizens of the town in the past.

1964 John Webber has recently published his book Unsung Servants of the Raj, the Story of an Ordinary Anglo-Indian Family in India in the Nineteenth Century.

1966 John Jordan’s second volume on the impact of a major fleet of the Washington Treaty of 1922. Entitled Warships After London it looks at the designs for cruisers, destroyers and submarines during the 1930s that emerged from the newly-imposed quantitative and qualitative limitations.

1969 Louis Naudi was appointed Senior Visiting Lecturer and Tutor at the University of Malta in Entrepreneurship in October 2020.

1971 Nicholas Drayson, the Bishop of Northern Argentina, has been elected as the Primate of the Anglican Church of South America. The provincial synod met in March 2021 and elected Bishop Nicholas as Primate of the Province. He succeeds President Bishop Greg Venables, who retired last year.

1972 Jonathan Cornthwaite has been recently appointed to a Lectureship at the Centre for Intellectual Property Policy and Management, University of Bournemouth.

1975 Peter Davenport’s book Roman Bath: A New History and Archaeology of Aquae Sulis was published in May by History Press. The book is intended as an authoritative and serious guide for the general reader. Honorary Fellow Barry Cunliffe has kindly provided a foreword to the book. Peter worked in Bath from 1980 to 2005 and has remained involved in the archaeology of Bath since, and is now a Trustee of the Roman Baths Foundation.

1976 Richard Lloyd’s book The Heart of the Renaissance, the Stories of the Art of Florence has been published in March by Unicorn. Richard expects that any who would like to visit Florence will enjoy it.

1976 Robert Lipscombe has published the first part of his audio play In the Shadow of the Hawk. Parts II and III will follow in the lead up to Christmas amounting to twenty hours in all. Around forty vocalisers have contributed to this dramatic account of Shakespeare’s life including talented amateurs and people who have discovered their talent late in life and in the very face of everyday disasters. The work is designed to prove that Shakespeare himself, as a grammar school boy without a degree, as the son of a grocer, as an artisan, was quite sufficient to the task of writing the great plays as well as the long poems and the sonnets.

1982 Mark Pilkington’s latest book Retail Recovery—a fascinating insight into how retailers can recover and thrive in retailing’s ‘new normal’—was published by Bloomsbury Business in August.

1986 Christopher Griffiths has been elected Fellow of the Academy of Medical Sciences.

1987 Dr Colin Podmore retired as Director of Forward in Faith February 2020. Colin was appointed MBE for services to the Church of England in The Queen’s Birthday Honours October 2020 and elected President of the Society for the Maintenance of the Faith in February 2021.

1983 Keith Stewart was appointed as the next Advocate General for Scotland.

1983 Justyn Terry’s book The Five Phases of Leadership describes the five typical stages of leadership—establishing trust, cultivating leaders, discerning vision, implementing plans, and transitioning out—offering an overview of the leadership life cycle from a distinctively Christian perspective.

1984 Dave Price was appointed Visiting Professor at the University of Reading in September 2021.

1990 Bill Gannon has recently completed his PhD after taking a career break to study as a full-time mature student at Swansea University. After previously working as an electronics engineer and computer programmer, Bill is now employed as a post-doctoral researcher in electrochemistry for the hydrogen economy.

1991 Paul Lloyd returned to UK after twenty—one years working away, the majority of the time spent in Michigan, USA. Three expat assignments while there—twice to Germany and once to Sweden. Paul will now relocate to the Warwickshire area for a new job at Aston Martin Lagonda. His focus will be to turn around the company and re-establish the brand as a premier, sport and luxury automotive specialist producer.

1994 Sally Coultard’s history book The Barn: the Lives, Landscape and Lost Ways of an Old Yorkshire Farm was published on 11 November 2021. The Barn is a socio—historical exploration of a small patch of Yorkshire countryside—hidden, insignificant, invisible to the rest of the world—which has experienced extraordinary changes. From the last of the enclosures to the boom days of Victorian high farming, the fortunes of the barn have been repeatedly upturned by the unstoppable forces of agriculture and industry. Medicine, transport, education, farming, women’s roles, war, technology—every facet of society was played out, in miniature, here. The walls of the barn are a palimpsest, written onto—and now about—by three hundred years of history.

1998 Isac Andru has been appointed to the High Court bench in New Zealand.

2003 Daniel McGowen and his wife Rosie welcomed their second child, Eden, born at home 3 November 2019. Daniel is now a Fellow of the Academy for Healthcare Science.

2003 Emma Jones’s first poetry collection The Incident was published in July by Smokestack Books.
