

KEBLE COLLEGE OXFORD

CHAPEL CARD

TRINITY TERM 2022

WEEKDAY SERVICES

*During this term Morning and Evening Prayer cannot be guaranteed.
It will depend on availability of students to lead the services.
However, the chapel is always open and books available.*

Morning Prayer at 8.15am (Monday – Friday)
Evening Prayer at 6.30pm (Monday, Thursday & Friday)
Eucharist at 6.30pm (Tuesday)
Choral Evensong at 6pm (Wednesday)
Compline by Candlelight at 9.00pm (Thursday)

SUNDAYS

At 5.30pm each Sunday the college community celebrates the Eucharist. This is at the centre of chapel life - our gathering for worship to celebrate the presence of Christ in Word and Sacrament. We hear readings from Scripture and a sermon and receive communion. It is a choral service where the music is led by the talented chapel choir and musicians. We have refreshments afterwards which finish in good time for dinner in Hall. All are warmly welcome.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN TRINITY TERM

St Mark's Day, Sunday 24 April, 5.30pm

This Evensong commemorates the foundation of the College and its founders and benefactors. It is the 146th anniversary of the opening of the Chapel (1876).

Ascension Day, Thursday 26 May, 8.15am and 6pm

This important day of the Christian year commemorates the risen Christ's ascension into heaven 40 days after Easter. The choir will sing Morning Prayer from the roof of the Chapel at 8.15am (Keble's own version of 'May Day'). There will be a Sung Eucharist in the Chapel at 6.00pm that evening when we will be joined by the chaplain and choir of Oriel College.

Evensong in Southrop, Wednesday 11 May, 6.30pm

The choir will travel to St Peter's, Southrop, to sing Evensong. This is one of the parish churches where John Keble served as a curate shortly after his ordination in 1815. Here is no service on chapel that evening.

Evensong, Wednesday 18th May, 6pm, sung by the combined choirs of Keble and Merton.

Roman Catholic Mass, Friday 27th May, 6pm

We are delighted to host and welcome the team from the Roman Catholic Chaplaincy.

Leavers' Service, Sunday 12 June, 5.30pm

This is the final Sunday service in the Chapel for the academic year.

THE ACTING CHAPLAIN

The Revd Darren McFarland

In case you haven't caught up with the changes Nevsky moved to Bucharest at the end of last term.

Until the College appoints a new chaplain, who will take up post in September, our Assistant Chaplain will be the Acting Chaplain.

Darren is also the full time vicar of one of the Keble parishes so will not be around in college every day.

He will have "office hours" when he will be in college (Liddon 10, Room 2901).

These will be on Sundays from 3pm until after chapel and on Wednesdays from 4pm until after chapel.

You will also be able to catch him in chapel before the Tuesday Eucharist.

You can of course make an appointment with Darren via his email or mobile phone at any time (his day off is Friday).

The Chaplain is available to all members of the College community.

Keble College Chapel is open to all as a place of worship, prayer, and quiet reflection. All College members and staff, as well as visitors, are welcome to services in the Chapel. Our services are according to those of the Church of England, but the daily offering of prayer is sustained by Christians from many different traditions.
