

Poets at Keble presents

Vahni Capildeo

Vahni (Anthony Ezekiel) Capildeo FRSL is Writer in Residence and Professor at the University of York, an Honorary Student of Christ Church, Oxford, and a Lay Dominican Enquirer (Edinburgh fraternity). A Trinidadian Scottish writer of poetry and non-fiction, their interests include traditional masquerade, silence, plurilingualism, and the poetics of place. The most recent of their books and pamphlets are Like a Tree, Walking (Carcenet, 2021), which was the Poetry Book Society winter choice, and Gentle Housework of the Sacrifice (Guillemot, forthcoming). Capildeo continued research on silence and trees while a Visiting Scholar at Pembroke College, Cambridge (2021). They are a contributing editor at PN Review and a contributing adviser for Blackbox Manifold.
